EVERY MAN A WILDCAT

I KNOW A SPOT THAT I LOVE FULL WELL. 'TIS NOT IN FOREST NOR YET IN DELL: EVER IT HOLDS ME WITH MAGIC SPELL. I THINK OF THEE, ALMA MATER.
K-S-U, WE'LL CARRY THY BANNER HIGH. K-S-U, LONG, LONG MAY THY COLORS FLY, LOYAL TO THEE. THY CHILDREN WILL SWELL THE CRY. HAIL, HAIL, HAIL, ALMA MATER!

2026 TEAM NOTES

KLEIN ERA OPENS IN 2026

• The 131st season of K-State football ushers in the opening of the Collin Klein era as the former Heisman Trophy finalist and starting quarterback of the 2012 Big 12 Championship team begins his first season as head coach in 2026.

• Klein, just the fourth former Wildcat letterwinner to serve as head coach, overhauled the roster as K-State brings back only 33 letterwinners from a year ago – its fewest since 2005 (30) – but the Wildcats were able to secure the services of 26 transfers that have a bevy of FBS experience.

PLAYER TO COACH

• Collin Klein, who was a quarterback for the Wildcats between the 2009 and 2012 seasons, is the first former K-State letterwinner to serve as head football coach since Ellis Rainsberger from 1975 through 1977.

• In fact, Klein is one of only four former letterwinners to take the helm of the K-State program, joining Lud Fiser (1945) and Ralph Graham (1948-50) along with Rainsberger.

• The sixth-youngest football coach in FBS, Klein is one of five current Big 12 head coaches that are leading their alma mater along with Arizona State's Kenny Dillingham, BYU's Kalani Sitake, Utah's Morgan Scalley and West Virginia's Rich Rodriguez.

ROSTER TURNOVER

• Kansas State's 2026 roster features 57 newcomers, which is made up of 31 high school or community college enrollees and 26 NCAA Division I or II transfers.

• Of K-State's 111-man roster this season, 51.4% are made up of new players from last season.

• K-State's record for newcomers in one season is 72 in 2002, while the 2011, 2013, 2004, 1983 and 2001 squads each had 60 or more newcomers.

MOST NEWCOMERS IN ONE SEASON

EXPERIENCED TRANSFER CLASS

• K-State's 26-man transfer class of 2026 has combined for 473 games played (18.19 per player). The 23 offensive or defensive players have combined for 176 starts (7.65 per player).

• The most experienced transfers entering their first year at K-State are wide receiver Josh Manning (37 games/19 starts), safety Adrian Maddox (36/28), running back Jay Harris (35/10), safety Ja'Son Prevard (33/29), linebacker Mekhi Mason (32/14), offensive lineman Tyler Johnson (27/0), cornerback Kaleb Patterson (26/15) and offensive lineman Delvin Morris (25/11).

THE BIG 12's BEST

• Kansas State has totaled 149 Big 12 victories since the conference's formation in 1996, which stands as the most among active Big 12 programs.

• The Cats are 17 wins ahead of Oklahoma State (132) and 23 victories ahead of Texas Tech (126). The Wildcats, Cowboys and Red Raiders are the only three Big 12 teams with over 100 conference wins.

• K-State is also first among active Big 12 members in winning percentage since non-divisional play began in 2011 (min. 50 games). The Wildcats sit at 59.3% (85-55), ahead of Oklahoma State (57.0%; 77-58) and TCU (55.6%; 70-56).

• During that stretch, the Wildcats are 45-23 (66.2%) at home and 35-33 (51.5%) on the road/neutral in Big 12 play.

ALL-TIME BIG 12 WINS

FOUR-STRAIGHT WINNING BIG 12 SEASONS

• Kansas State has earned a winning Big 12 record in each of the last four seasons, its longest streak since doing so in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014.

• The Wildcats are one of only two Big 12 teams with a current four-year streak of winning Big 12 records (Texas Tech).

A REGULAR IN THE POSTSEASON

• Kansas State has qualified for postseason play in 14 of the last 15 seasons (excluding COVID) as the Wildcats earned a 6-6 record in 2025 but opted to not participate in a bowl game due to the change in coaching staff.

• The Wildcats are one of only 15 Power 4 teams – and the only Big 12 program – to be eligible in 14 of the last 15 seasons, joining Alabama, Clemson, Georgia, Iowa, Louisville, LSU, Miami, Michigan, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas A&M and Washington.

2026 OFFENSIVE NOTES

KLEIN'S EXPLOSIVE OFFENSES

• New K-State head coach Collin Klein has been one of the top offensive coordinators in the nation the last four seasons. He earned his first offensive coordinator post with the Wildcats in 2022 and 2023 before moving to Texas A&M for the 2024 and 2025 seasons.

• During his four seasons as an offensive coordinator, Klein helped the Wildcats and Aggies to a combined 38-15 record, including a Big 12 Championship at K-State in 2022 and a berth into the College Football Playoff at Texas A&M in 2025.

• Over the last four seasons, Klein's offenses have averaged 33.4 points per game, which would tie for 14th among Power 4 programs.

• Additionally, his last four offenses have combined for 428.5 yards per game (230.1 passing yards per game/198.4 rushing yards per game) which would rank 15th among Power 4 schools.

• His teams the last four years have combined for 252 plays of at least 20 or more yards (177 pass/75 rush), good for an average of 4.8 per game.

HIGH POINT TOTAL vs. BIG 12

• When Collin Klein took over the K-State offense in 2022, it began a Big 12-leading trend of averaging 32.9 points per game in conference games, which enters the 2026 season ranked 13th nationally (min. 30 games) and sixth among Power 4 teams.

• The Cats have hit the 30-point mark in 23 of their 36 Big 12 games since the start of 2022, which includes nine times over the last two seasons with current quarterback Avery Johnson.

• K-State had a four-game streak of scoring at least 30 points last year against UCF (34), Baylor (34), TCU (41) and Kansas (42), its longest streak overall since doing so in six-straight games during the 2003 season.

THIRD-YEAR STARTER

• Quarterback Avery Johnson is back for his third year of starting duties in 2026 having started each of the last 26 games. His 26-straight games started is the longest streak by any K-State quarterback entering their senior season.

• Johnson's 26-straight starts overall is tied for second in school history behind Josh Freeman's 32-straight starts over his freshman through junior seasons. Johnson is tied with current K-State head coach Collin Klein (2011-12) and former quarterback Jake Waters (2013-14), who started all 26 games over their junior and senior seasons to close out their careers.

• Johnson is one of only two quarterbacks in the Big 12 in 2026 to have started for multiple years at the same school. The other is Noah Fifita, who has made 34 starts over the last three seasons at Arizona.

• Avery Johnson goes into his senior campaign with 5,576 passing yards and 1,378 rushing yards in his career as he is one of only three quarterbacks in program history to go over the 5,000-yard mark and 1,000-yard mark in passing and rushing, respectively.

• Johnson joined Ell Roberson (2000-03) and Skylar Thompson (2017-21) on the list, but Johnson was the fastest of the three to reach those numbers as he did so in his 30th career game. It took Thompson 36 games and Roberson 41 games to reach the milestone.

• Johnson is one of nine active players in the nation to hit those career marks, joining Alonza Barnett III (UCF), Byrum Brown (Auburn), Anthony Colandrea (Nebraska), Devon Dampier (Utah), Cam Fancher (Michigan State), Jaylen Raynor (Iowa State) and Marcel Reed (Texas A&M).

• Of the eight quarterbacks, only Johnson and Reed – the latter of whom head coach Collin Klein worked with the last two seasons at Texas A&M – have not transferred during their careers.

ON THE BRINK OF HISTORY

• Avery Johnson's first touchdown pass of 2026 will carry significant weight as he will break the school's career record.

• Johnson enters 2026 tied with Will Howard (2020-23) with 48 career touchdown passes as he looks to become the first K-State quarterback with more than 50 touchdown strikes in a career.

• A product of Wichita, Kansas, Johnson goes into his senior season in the top 10 in program history in 15 career categories.

OAKLEY ALSO AFTER RECORDS

• Senior Garrett Oakley is also looking to put his name in the top 10 of several records as he looks to lay claim as one of the best tight ends in school history.

• The career record holder for touchdowns by a tight end with 13, Oakley is also looking to hold the school's positional catches and receiving yards record. He enters the year ranked fourth with 71 catches, 35 receptions behind Jeron Mastrud's record from 2006-09. Oakley is also 586 receiving yards behind Henry Childs' record from 1971-73.

ACTION JACKSON

• Junior running back Joe Jackson returns after a stellar finish to his 2025 campaign in which he rushed for 435 yards and six touchdowns over the final two games, good for a 217.5-yard, three touchdown average after averaging 47.6 yards and 0.2 touchdowns in the first 10 games.

• Included in that great finish was a school-record 293-yard outburst at No. 13 Utah. That broke the 21-year old record of Darren Sproles by a single yard as the future College Football Hall of Fame member had 292 yards against Louisiana on September 18, 2004.

• Jackson leads a loaded running back room that also includes transfers Rodney Fields Jr. (Oklahoma State) and Jay Harris (Northwest Missouri State/Oregon).

2026 DEFENSIVE/SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

CATS TOPS IN NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

• K-State is the nation's best in non-offensive touchdowns over the last 27 seasons as it has 139 since 1999, 10 more than the closest team (Alabama – 129) and 17 more than the next Big 12 program (Utah – 122).

• K-State has recorded four non-offensive scores in each of the last two seasons. Last year, the Wildcats had a 99-yard kickoff return against Army, a 15-yard fumble return by Wesley Fair and a 25-yard interception return by Des Purnell against TCU, while they received a 20-yard fumble return on a botched punt snap at Kansas.

• The four non-offensive touchdowns last season tied for 14th nationally and second in the Big 12 behind BYU (5).

NON-OFFENSIVE TDs SINCE 1999

Rk.	School	Non-Off. TDs
1.	K-State	139
2.	Alabama	129
3.	Utah	122
4.	Virginia Tech	120
5.	Texas	119

LIMITED POINTS PER GAME

• Since the 2021 season (65 games), the Cats are allowing 22.7 points per game, which ranks third among current Big 12 teams and 20th among Power 4 teams (minimum 40 games).

• Since 2019, the Wildcats have held 49 of their 62 Big 12 opponents under their season average at the time it faces the Wildcats (excluding 2025 season opener against Iowa State).

CREATING TURNOVERS

• Over the last four seasons, K-State has done an excellent job in forcing opponent turnovers. Since 2022, the Wildcats have been on the receiving end of 88 turnovers, which ranks 12th in the nation, seventh among Power 4 teams and are the second most among active Big 12 teams.

• Of the 88 turnovers, 52 have been via interception to rank third among active Big 12 programs and tie for 13th among Power 4 teams.

SCOOP IT UP

• The K-State defense had a propensity of falling on fumbles last season as it tied for third nationally with 13 recoveries.

• The 13 fumble recoveries last season were the most by a K-State team since the 2012 squad also had 13 recoveries over 13 games. In 2024, the Wildcats only had five fumble recoveries.

BREAKING UP THE PASS

• Cornerback Zashon Rich recorded 11 pass breakups in 12 games last season to rank third in the Big 12 and tie for 15th in the country.

• His 11 pass breakups were the most since Duke Shelley had 11 in 2017, and it tied for 20th in program history.

• A junior from Minneapolis, Minnesota, Rich recorded his first-career interception last season at Oklahoma State.

IMPACT TRANSFER

• Kansas State was able to secure the services of defensive end Wendell Gregory out of the transfer portal after he had an outstanding redshirt freshman season at Oklahoma State.

• The Marietta, Georgia, native earned Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors in 2025 in addition to being named a Third Team All-Big 12 performer and a finalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award.

• Gregory recorded 12.0 tackles for loss last season, ranking second nationally among freshmen and fifth in the Big 12 among all players in TFLs. Additionally, his 4.0 sacks led all Big 12 freshmen.

SCORING IN THE THIRD PHASE

• A big part of K-State's non-offensive touchdown success comes from special teams as the Wildcats continue to lead the nation in total kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns since 2005 with 63, which is 23 more than the second-best team in Alabama (40) and 26 more than the closest Big 12 programs, Oklahoma State and TCU (34).

• Of the 63 total returns, a nation-leading 32 are on kickoff returns, which are 11 more than the second-best team (Houston).

COMBINED KOR/PR TDs SINCE 2005

Rk.	School	KOR/PR TDs
1.	K-State	63
2.	Alabama	40
3.	San Diego State	37
4.	Oklahoma State	34
	Oregon	34
	TCU	34
	Texas	34

DEFENSE ON KICK RETURNS

• K-State has not allowed a kickoff return for a touchdown since the 2013 season, going the last 163 games and 465 returns without allowing its opponent to find paydirt.

• The streak is the longest among the active Big 12 teams, more than double the second-best team (Arizona State – 202).

• Since K-State allowed its last kickoff-return touchdown, the Wildcats have scored 15 of their own.

CATS RETURN PRIMARY KICKER AND PUNTER

• K-State has the luxury of returning both its place kicker in Luis Rodriguez and punter in Simon McClannan.

• Rodriguez, a native of Sylmar, California, arrived in Manhattan just prior to 2025 preseason camp and went on to have a great season as he connected on 13-of-15 field goal attempts and all 42 extra points. He ranked 22nd nationally and second in the Big 12 with his 86.7% field goal conversion rate, a mark that tied for sixth in school history.

• McClannan has been the primary punter and kickoff man each of the last two seasons. In 2025, the Omaha, Nebraska, native averaged 42.5 yards on 48 punts to rank 13th in school history, while he tied for fifth in the Big 12 with 13 punts of 50 or more yards and 18 punts that landed inside the opponent 20-yard line.

• Although both Rodriguez and McClannan return, they will be pushed by a pair of transfers in kicker Robert Hammond III (Florida Atlantic/Toledo) and punter Dylan Davidson (Emporia State).

▲ THAD WARD

Thad Ward returns to Manhattan after helping the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 Championship as the wide receivers coach. He will tutor the K-State receivers again in 2026 while also adding the title of associate head coach. Ward, who enters his 25th season of coaching, came back to Manhattan after spending the last three seasons at Illinois where he worked with the Illini running backs in addition to earning the title of assistant head coach for the 2024 and 2025 seasons. Ward began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida A&M while also making stops at Western Illinois, Gardner-Webb, Western Michigan, Northern Illinois and Temple.

▲ SEAN GLEESON

Sean Gleeson serves as K-State's offensive coordinator, joining the staff in Manhattan after working the last two seasons at Missouri. This is Gleeson's second stint in the Big 12 as he was the offensive coordinator and tutored the quarterbacks at Oklahoma State in 2019 before taking a similar position to move closer to home at Rutgers. The 2026 season will be sixth season Gleeson has served as an offensive coordinator as he also held the title at Fairleigh Dickinson and Princeton, the latter of which he oversaw the top scoring offense and second-best offense in terms of total yards in the FCS in 2018.

▲ JORDAN PETERSON

A native Texan who worked the previous two seasons as co-defensive coordinator at Texas A&M, Jordan Peterson is K-State's defensive coordinator. This is his second time working in the state of Kansas as he was at KU for the 2020 through 2023 seasons. A Texas A&M alum, Peterson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Aggies before working five years at Fresno State and three seasons at New Mexico, the final year of which he was defensive playcaller. Last season at Texas A&M, Peterson helped the Aggies to an 11-2 record and a trip to the College Football Playoff as they ranked in the top 20 in seven statistical categories.

▲ STANTON WEBER

A former Wildcat letterwinner – including the 2012 season when K-State won a Big 12 Championship – Stanton Weber is back in Manhattan as the program's special teams coordinator. Weber spent the last three seasons as a the special teams coordinator at Toledo, including the 2024 campaign in which he was named a finalist for the 2024 Special Teams Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop. He earned his start in coaching as a graduate assistant for the Wildcats before becoming a special teams quality control coach. He then went to South Carolina for two seasons to work as a special teams analyst before going to Toledo.

▲ CHRISTIAN ELLSWORTH

Christian Ellsworth returns to K-State after serving as an offensive graduate assistant for the Wildcats to begin his coaching career. Most recently, Ellsworth worked two seasons at Texas A&M, including the final year as the Aggies' tight ends coach. He has also had stints at South Carolina and Nebraska.

▲ JEREMIAH JOHNSON

Entering his 25th year in coaching in 2026, Jeremiah Johnson returns to his home state. A native of Scandia, Kansas, Johnson has worked a majority of his career at Northern Iowa, including 10 seasons as defensive coordinator, while he also led defenses at Kent State, Louisiana Tech and Coastal Carolina.

▲ BRIAN LEPAK

Brian Lepak is in his sixth season at K-State and is back coaching the Wildcat tight ends, a position he tutored for three seasons before working with the offensive line last year. Lepak came to Manhattan in 2021 as a senior offensive quality control coach, and he also worked at Indiana, Oklahoma and Southern.

▲ CORY PATTERSON

A respected high school coach in St. Louis, Cory Patterson coaches the K-State running backs, remaining in the Big 12 after working last year at Oklahoma State. Patterson's first college job came at Illinois where he coached the tight ends and running backs, while he coached receivers for two years at Purdue.

▲ MIKE SCHMIDT

Mike Schmidt joins the K-State staff working with the offensive line after spending 14 of his first 17 years coaching at his alma mater, San Diego State. In between stints at SDSU, Schmidt coached the offensive line for two seasons at Syracuse and was the running game coordinator for one season at Mississippi State.

▲ NICK TOTH

Working with virtually every defensive position in his 26 years, Nick Toth tutors the K-State linebackers. He comes to Manhattan after working four seasons as the safeties coach at Air Force, while he has seven years of coordinator experience at Mercyhurst, Ashland, Fresno State and UCF.

▲ BUDDY WYATT

Buddy Wyatt enters his eighth season coaching the Wildcat defensive line, helping guide three players to Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year honors. Wyatt enters his 36th year of coaching and previously worked in the Big 12 at Oklahoma State, Colorado, Nebraska, Texas A&M and Kansas.

▲ MARCEL YATES

Marcel Yates enters his 25th season of coaching in 2026 and first working with the K-State cornerbacks. Yates has 12 years of coordinator experience coming at his alma mater, Boise State, in addition to Texas A&M, Arizona, Oregon and Texas Tech, while he has also coached at Montana State and California.

▲ JEREMY JACOBS

Jeremy Jacobs enters his first season as K-State's Director of Strength and Conditioning after working as an associate director at LSU, Duke and Texas A&M, while he also worked at his alma mater, Milwaukee. Jacobs is a veteran of the United States Army, serving as an Airborne Ranger with the 2nd Ranger Battalion.

COLLIN KLEIN

Head Coach

Kansas State, 2011

kstatesports.com/CoachKlein
@CK_KleinCollin

One of the greatest players in school history has returned to lead the Wildcats on the sidelines, as Collin Klein was named the 36th head football coach in school history on December 4, 2025.

Klein, who at 36 years of age is the sixth-youngest head coach in the FBS, will be in his 13th year of coaching in 2026 with 10 of those seasons coming at K-State.

The first K-State alum to serve as head football coach since Ellis Rainsberger from 1975-77 – and one of only four former letterwinners to serve as head coach – Klein was on the K-State staff as quarterbacks coach from 2017 through 2021, while he served as K-State's offensive coordinator in 2022 and 2023. He helped the Wildcats to 51 wins and five bowl appearances during his tenure as a full-time assistant coach, while he was part of a staff that led Kansas State to a 19-8 mark and the 2022 Big 12 Championship during his two-year run as offensive coordinator.

His first full season as offensive coordinator was a success as he guided an offense that helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 title and the 10th season with 10 or more wins. In the process, Klein's unit ranked in the top 10 in school history in 11 categories, including ranking second in offensive yards (5,863) and plays (958), fourth in rushing yards (2,916) and fifth in yards per game (418.8).

The Wildcats finished the 2022 season with 421.6 total yards per game – their most since 2014 – while their 32.3 points per game were the most by the squad since 2017. K-State improved its production in Klein's second season at the offensive controls, as its 37.1 points per game ranked 10th nationally and sixth in school history, while it was the highest average by a K-State team since Klein's senior season of 2012 (38.9 points per game). Kansas State produced 445.2 total yards per game in 2023 to rank second in school history.

Klein directed an offense in 2022 that hit those marks despite starting two different quarterbacks throughout the season in Adrian Martinez and Will Howard. The duo helped K-State set the school record for lowest interception percentage (1.54%), rank fourth in completions (242), sixth in passing yards (2,947) and seventh in passing touchdowns (21). Martinez set the school record for lowest interception percentage by a player in school history (0.54%), while Howard had the seventh-best season passing efficiency ever by a Wildcat (149.6).

With Klein at the controls, running back Deuce Vaughn became the second player in school history to twice earn Consensus All-America honors, while offensive lineman Cooper Beebe also earned First Team All-America accolades. The pair were two of eight Wildcat offensive players that earned All-Big 12 honors. Klein guided Martinez to honorable mention accolades, while he also picked up votes for the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year award.

In 2023, Klein guided K-State to No. 11 rankings in rushing offense (208.3 yards per game), first downs (23.8 per game) and third down conversions (47.9%), while the Wildcats ranked 14th in the country turnovers lost (12) and 21st in time of possession (31:52).

Klein helped close out the career of Howard, who set the school's career record for touchdown passes (48), while he ranked fourth in career completions (458), fifth in passing yards (5,786), attempts (779) and total offense per game (197.3), sixth in passing yards per game (170.2) and seventh in passing efficiency (135.1). In 2023, Howard ranked seventh nationally in points responsible for per game (17.50), while he finished fourth in school history in single-season completions (219), sixth in passing yards (2,643) and seventh in attempts (357).

November 6, 2010 – After splitting time as a quarterback and wide receiver in 2009, Klein makes his first start at quarterback and leads K-State to a 39-14 win over Texas.

December 1, 2012 – In his final home game as a player, Klein helps the Wildcats capture the 2012 Big 12 Championship following a 42-24 victory over No. 23 Texas.

2014 Season – Just two years removed from his playing days, Klein begins his coaching career, serving as an defensive quality control coach at K-State.

December 3, 2022 – Serving as offensive coordinator, Klein helps K-State earn a 31-28 overtime victory over TCU to claim the program's third Big 12 Championship.

December 4, 2025 – Klein is hired as the 36th head football coach in school history and is reintroduced to the K-State Family the next day.

During his final season as K-State's offensive coordinator, Klein helped Beebe become the first offensive lineman in school history to earn Consensus All-America accolades, while tight end Ben Sinnott was also named an All-American. The offense combined for 13 All-Big 12 honors, including second-team accolades by Howard, who also picked up votes for the Big 12 Offensive Player of Year award.

Throughout his time coaching the K-State quarterbacks, low interceptions were a reoccurring theme. During those seven seasons, K-State only threw 53 picks (7.57 per season and 0.60 per game) to tie for seventh among Power 5 programs.

Serving as the offensive coordinator at Texas A&M the last two seasons, Klein helped the Aggies to an 11-2 record and a berth into the College Football Playoff in 2025. This past season, the Aggies ranked in the top 35 nationally in scoring offense (19th; 33.8 points per game), total offense (23rd; 444.5 yards per game), rushing offense (30th; 184.7 yards per game), passing offense (30th; 259.8 yards per game), tackles for loss allowed (3rd; 3.31 per game), fourth down percentage (9th; 70.6%), passing yards per completion (12th; 13.62), time of possession (14th; 32:30), sacks allowed (29th; 1.46 per game) and first downs (31st; 293). Texas A&M hit the 400-yard mark in total offense 10 times in 2025.

A 2025 Broyles Award Semifinalist, Klein guided Aggie quarterback Marcel Reed to top-15 individual marks this season in passing yards per completion (12th; 13.54), points responsible for (22nd; 14.3 per game) and passing touchdowns (18th; 25).

In his first season at Texas A&M in 2024, Klein helped the Aggies earn a 5-0 start in SEC play, marking the program's best start in SEC action and their best conference start since 1998. Texas A&M boasted the No. 2 rushing offense in the SEC, ranking 26th nationally (195.5 yards per game), and the offensive line ranked 10th in the country by allowing just 51.0 tackles for loss on the year.

Klein earned his first full-time coaching position tutoring the quarterbacks at Northern Iowa in 2016, which was just a year hiatus from Manhattan as he worked as an assistant director of recruiting and defensive quality control coach for the Wildcats in 2014 and an offensive graduate assistant in 2015. He came back to Manhattan to serve as the quarterbacks coach in 2017 through 2021, which included the title of co-offensive coordinator in 2018.

The 2012 Johnny Unitas Award winner, Klein finished his K-State playing career ranking in the school's top 10 in 34 different game, season and career record categories. He was the first quarterback from a Power 5 school since 1998 to rush for at least 20 touchdowns and pass for 10 scores in consecutive seasons by doing so in 2011 and 2012.

Klein led the Wildcats to a combined 21-5 record as the starting quarterback in 2011 and 2012, which culminated with a No. 1 national ranking, Big 12 Championship and Fiesta Bowl berth in 2012.

He obtained his undergraduate degree from K-State in December 2011 in business financial services and controllership, while he received his master's degree in academic advising in December 2019.

He is married to the former Shalin Spani, a former Wildcat women's basketball player. The couple has three sons, Beric, Rhett and Trek, and one daughter, Briar.

THAD WARD

Associate Head Coach
Wide Receivers
UCF, 2001

@wardth09

A 24-year coaching veteran with deep ties to the Midwest, Thad Ward is in his first season of his second stint at Kansas State in 2026 coaching the wide receivers, while he will be in his first season serving as the program's associate head coach. He also coached the Wildcat wide receivers during their 2022 Big 12 Championship campaign.

Ward comes back to Manhattan after working the last three seasons at Illinois as the running backs coach, which included the title of assistant head coach during the final two years. Over the last two seasons, he helped lead the Illini to consecutive seasons of at least nine victories and back-to-back bowl wins for the first time in program history. It was his second stint in Champaign as he tutored the Illini running backs from 2016 through 2018.

Aside from K-State, Ward has also coached wide receivers at Gardner-Webb (2011), Western Michigan (2012), Northern Illinois (2013-15) and Temple (2019-21). He also served as the passing game coordinator at both Gardner-Webb and Temple.

During his first season in Manhattan in 2022, K-State earned a 10-4 record, including a 31-28 overtime win over eventual National Championship Runner-Up TCU in the Big 12 Championship Game. The Wildcats finished the season with a No. 14 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 and a trip to the Sugar Bowl thanks in part to its offense, which ranked in the top 10 in school history in 11 categories, including offensive yards (2nd; 5,863), plays (2nd; 958) and yards per game (5th; 418.8).

Ward's unit claimed the top three receiver spots for the Wildcats that season, combining for 139 receptions for 1,768 yards and 11 touchdowns. Malik Knowles led the way with 48 receptions for 725 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while Kade Warner had 46 catches for 456 yards and five scores. Both players signed with NFL clubs following the season as Knowles was picked up by Minnesota and Warner inked with Tampa Bay.

This past season at Illinois, Ward helped Illinois to a 9-4 record, which culminated with a victory in the Music City Bowl, a game in which the Illini rushed for 221 yards, including 150 from the running backs. Ward coached a trio of running backs that combined for 1,503 yards and 14 touchdowns in Ca'Lil Valentine, Kaden Feagin and Aidan Laughery, all three of which logged starts in 2025. Valentine led the way with 614 yards and four touchdowns, while Feagin had 507 yards and a team-leading seven rushing touchdowns.

Ward's running back room was key to the Fighting Illini's offensive success in 2024, helping Illinois go 10-3 – tying the single-season record for wins – and a No. 16 final ranking in the Associated Press Top 25. The Illini capped the year with a victory over No. 14 South Carolina in the Cheez-It Citrus Bowl, as pupil Josh McCray ran for 114 yards and two touchdowns to earn Citrus Bowl MVP honors. The Illini's top four backs – McCray, Feagin, Laughery and Valentine – combined for 1,716 yards and 19 touchdowns. McCray led the way with 609 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, the latter tied for the eighth-most in a season in Illinois history, while Laughery was right behind him with 589 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns. Feagin averaged a team-high 61.2 yards per game and scored three touchdowns through five games before suffering a season-ending injury, and true freshman Valentine emerged as one of the top freshman backs in the Big Ten, posting more than 200 yards on the ground.

Ward helped the Illinois offense rank in the top five in the Big Ten in total offense (3rd; 391.0 yards per game) and scoring (5th; 24.5 points per game) during the first season of his second tenure in 2023. Ward guided the emergence of Feagin, one of the top true freshman running backs in the nation that season, to All-Big Ten Honorable Mention accolades and two Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors.

Ward's first stint in Manhattan came on the heels of working three seasons at Temple where he tutored the Owl wide receivers and served as the pass game coordinator. He coached Jadan Blue to a pair of All-AAC honors, including the 2019 season when Blue set the school's all-time record for receptions (95) and yards (1,067), becoming the first player in school history to top the 1,000-yard receiving mark. Opposite Blue, Branden Mack caught 59 passes for 904 yards and seven touchdowns, each of which ranked among the best in school history.

In 2019, Ward's wideouts were the top three receivers for the Owls as the position group combined for 152 catches for 1,568 yards and 10 scores.

Ward went to Temple following his first three seasons at Illinois, coaching the Illini running backs. In 2018 under the direction of Ward, running back Reggie Corbin rushed for 1,085 yards and nine touchdowns as his 8.5 yards per carry were the best in the country. In 2017, Ward coached freshman Mike Epstein, who was the fifth true freshman in program history to lead the team in rushing yards and also tied for the team lead with four total touchdowns.

In his first season in Champaign in 2016, Ward helped junior running back Kendrick Foster have a breakout year, finishing third in the Big Ten in yards per carry (5.7) and seventh in all-purpose yards per game (110.7). Corbin also had a big season, ranking 14th in the nation in yards per carry among freshmen (6.1), the best mark by an Illini freshman since at least 2000.

Ward went to Illinois following three seasons coaching the wide receivers at Northern Illinois from 2013 to 2015, helping the Huskies to a 31-11 record and three bowl appearances. His success was highlighted by two-time All-MAC honoree Da'Ron Brown, who was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2015 NFL Draft. Brown caught 68 passes for 1,065 yards and six touchdowns to lead the Huskies to the 2014 MAC Championship. He also helped develop Kenny Golladay, drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round in 2017, and Tommylee Lewis, a 2013 All-American who went on to become an undrafted free agent signed by the New Orleans Saints in 2016.

Ward spent the 2012 season at Western Michigan as he developed wide receiver Jaime Wilson into the MAC Freshman of the Year thanks to 67 receptions for 792 yards and six touchdowns.

Prior to WMU, Ward spent one season at Gardner-Webb as the wide receivers coach/passing game coordinator in 2011, which followed six seasons as the running backs coach at Western Illinois from 2005 to 2010. During his time in Macomb, Ward coached three players to All-America status in Travis Glasford (2005), Herb Donaldson (2007 and 2008) and Dre Gibbs (2008). In his final season at WIU, Ward helped the Leathernecks finish with an 8-5 record, which included a victory in the First Round of the FCS Playoffs.

Ward began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida A&M before spending two years coaching at Tallahassee Rickards High School in 2003 and 2004, the final year serving as the interim head coach.

Ward played three seasons at UCF from 1999 to 2001. As a senior, he was the team's second-leading receiver for 44 catches for 446 yards and a touchdown. In 1999, Ward returned a pair of blocked punts for touchdowns, one at Georgia and the other at Middle Tennessee. He went to UCF after spending two seasons at Coffeyville Community College.

Ward obtained his bachelor's degree in criminal justice at UCF in 2001. He and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Jayda and Journie, and one son, Thaddaeus Jr.

A 19-year coaching veteran who has presided over explosive offenses during his eight seasons as a coordinator, Sean Gleeson is in his first season as Kansas State's offensive coordinator in 2026.

Gleeson comes to Manhattan from Missouri where he spent the last two seasons working with the Tiger quarterbacks. This will be his second tour of duty in the Big 12 having served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oklahoma State in 2019. He left Stillwater to be the offensive coordinator for three seasons at Rutgers. Prior to that, Gleeson was the offensive coordinator at both Princeton (2017-18) and Fairleigh Dickinson (2011-12).

Last season, Gleeson helped Missouri produce an 8-5 record while working with two different quarterbacks throughout the season due to injury. Those players, Beau Pribula and true freshman Matt Zollers, combined to throw for 2,444 yards and 15 touchdowns. The year prior, Missouri went 10-3, which included a win over Iowa in the Music City Bowl. The Tigers finished the 2024 season ranked fifth nationally in fewest passes intercepted (5), 10th in red zone offense (92.0%) and 16th in third down conversions (46.4%).

Gleeson went to Missouri after spending one year as a senior offensive analyst at Northwestern. It was his fourth year in the Big Ten as he spent the three previous seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Rutgers. A 2020 candidate for the Broyles Award – which is given annually to the top assistant coach in the nation – Gleeson mentored two NFL draft picks in wide receiver Bo Melton (Seattle) and running back Isaiah Pacheco (Kansas City), the latter of which was on Super Bowl winning teams in 2022 and 2023.

Under Gleeson control, Rutgers finished as the fourth-most improved team in the nation by scoring 13.4 more points per game in 2020 than the year prior to his arrival. Despite the fact that the Scarlet Knights played in three fewer games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Rutgers scored 81 more points than in 2019, which was the sixth-best improvement in the nation. Additionally, RU was the most improved in the Big Ten in total offensive touchdowns (plus-9) in only 10 games. During his time guiding the offense, four players earned All-Big Ten honors.

Gleeson spent the 2019 campaign at Oklahoma State, helping the Cowboys to an 8-5 record – including a pair of ranked wins – and an appearance in the Texas Bowl. Under his tutelage, the Cowboy offense ranked 17th nationally in rushing offense (229.6 yards per game), 21st in total offense (453.9 yards per game) and 35th in scoring offense (32.5 points per game).

He helped guide running back Chuba Hubbard, a Consensus All-American who led the nation in rushing yards (2,094) and all-purpose yards (179.54 yards per game), while he was third in rushing touchdowns (21) and eighth in scoring (9.8). Hubbard, the 2019 Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, eventually went on to be selected in the fourth round of the 2021 NFL Draft by Carolina.

Prior to his time at the Power 4 level, Gleeson spent six seasons at Princeton as the running backs coach (2013-15), special teams coordinator (2016) and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2017-18). Engineering one of the most explosive offenses in the FCS, he helped the Tigers to an unblemished 10-0 campaign in 2018. Under Gleeson, Princeton finished that season first in the FCS in scoring offense (47.0 points per game) and second in total offense (536.8 yards per game). Three members of the 2018 offense went on to play in the NFL in Jesper Horstad (Chicago), Stephen Carlson (Cleveland) and John Lovett (Kansas City).

Lovett, the Tigers' quarterback, excelled as a dual-threat performer under Gleeson en route to 2018 Ivy League Offensive Player of the Year honors. Completing 66.1% of his passes with 18 touchdowns, Lovett led the Ivy League by averaging 303.0 yards of total offense per game, passing for 203.7 yards per game and rushing for 99.3 yards per contest, while he became Princeton's first two-time First Team All-American since 1964.

Gleeson's unit wasn't only one of the best in the FCS during his time as offensive coordinator. In fact, over the 2017 and 2018 seasons, Princeton ranked fourth in the country among all FBS and FCS teams by averaging 42.6 points per game, while the Tigers ranked sixth with 509.9 yards per game.

In Gleeson's six years on staff, Princeton won three Ivy League championships and averaged 36.9 points per game, which marked the program's highest output over a six-year stretch in program history.

Gleeson began his coaching career at Delbarton School in Morristown, New Jersey, where he coached football, baseball and bowling from 2007 through 2010. His first job at the collegiate ranks came in 2011 and 2012 when he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fairleigh Dickinson.

A native of Glen Ridge, New Jersey, Gleeson played quarterback at Williams College, a Division III program in Williamstown, Massachusetts. He was the highest-rated passer in the New England Small College Athletic Conference in 2005 with a rating of 163.6, and a year later he led the Ephs to an 8-0 mark. Gleeson received the Farley Award in 2006, which is presented to the member of the football team who demonstrates superior qualities of dedication, loyalty and sacrifice for the betterment of the team. He also played first base for the baseball team at Williams.

Gleeson obtained his undergraduate degree in English from Williams College in 2007. He and his wife, Lauren, have three children, Eamon, Patrick and William.

JORDAN PETERSON

Defensive Coordinator
Defensive Backs
Texas A&M, 2009

kstatesports.com/CoachPeterson
@CoachJPeterson

Jordan Peterson, an experienced defensive backs coach who has five years of coordinator experience and spent six years on Big 12 staffs, is in his first season as Kansas State's defensive coordinator and defensive backs in 2026.

Peterson came from his alma mater, Texas A&M, where he served as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach each of the past two seasons alongside current K-State head coach Collin Klein.

Peterson helped guide Texas A&M to an 11-2 record and a trip to the College Football Playoff in 2025. Texas A&M led the nation in third down defense (22.9%), while the Aggies ranked second in sacks (3.31 per game) and tackles for loss (8.5 per game), eighth in first down defense (205), 16th in passing yards allowed (176.6 per game), 18th in total defense (307.4 per game) and 19th in fourth down defense (41.2%).

Peterson's defensive backs were responsible for 24 pass breakups this past season, which included a combined 14 from starting cornerbacks Will Lee III and Dezz Ricks. Additionally, safety Marcus Ratcliffe ranked second on the team with 66 tackles and another safety, Dalton Brooks, had 5.5 tackles for loss.

In his first season on staff at Texas A&M in 2024, Peterson helped the Aggies earn an 8-5 record – including a program-best 5-0 start to SEC play – and an appearance in the Las Vegas Bowl. He oversaw a secondary that played a key role in the Aggies ranking 14th nationally with 16 interceptions, while Texas A&M tied for fifth in the country with 76 total passes defended. Of the 16 interceptions, 13 came from Peterson's defensive backs, including three from BJ Mayes to tie for fourth in the SEC.

Peterson tutored Lee III to 2024 All-SEC Second Team accolades as he ranked fifth in the conference with 10 pass breakups and was in the top five on the team with 42 tackles, including a team-best 39 solo stops.

Prior to his time at Texas A&M, Peterson worked four seasons at Kansas as the safeties coach (2020, 2022), senior defensive analyst (2021) and defensive passing game coordinator/defensive backs coach (2023). During his time in Lawrence, Peterson mentored four All-Big 12 selections, including two-time All-Big 12 First Team selection Cobee Bryant. Bryant and Mello Dotson, an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honoree, combined for seven interceptions in 2023, the most by a Kansas duo since 2007. Dotson returned two of those interceptions for touchdowns, doing so in back-to-back games as he became the first player in school history with a pick-six in consecutive games.

In 2022, Peterson helped the Jayhawks qualify for a bowl game for the first time since 2008. That season, Bryant finished with three interceptions and nine pass breakups, ranking fifth in the conference with 12 passes defended in league play, while he totaled 38 tackles on the year.

Peterson joined Kansas' staff as the safeties coach in 2020 when he guided Kenny Logan Jr. a team-high two interceptions and 58 tackles.

Peterson went to Kansas from New Mexico where he earned a promotion each season. Originally joining the Lobo staff as a safeties coach, Peterson was the defensive pass game coordinator in 2018 before running the UNM defense in 2019. In his first two seasons at New Mexico, Peterson's safeties paced the squad in tackles as Jake Rothschiller (2017) and Stanley Barnwell Jr. (2018) each had a team-leading 76 stops.

The longest stint in Peterson's career came at Fresno State where, like other stops, he received multiple promotions. During his time with the Bulldogs, he coached eight All-Mountain West honorees, four of which earned first-team designations.

Beginning as the secondary coach in 2012, Peterson helped the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record as they ranked second nationally in pass defense (167.15 yards per game) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (100.80). He also mentored safety Phillip Thomas to Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year honors. Fresno State then won the 2013 Mountain West title and a trip to the Las Vegas Bowl before he coached the outside linebackers and served as the recruiting coordinator in 2015 and 2016.

Peterson received his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M in 2010 and 2011, the Aggies' final two seasons in the Big 12. He was a four-year letterwinner for Texas A&M from 2006 to 2009 as a safety and punt returner, recording 81 career tackles to go along with 15 pass breakups, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and four interceptions, one of which he returned 48 yards for a touchdown. He also led the team with 14 punt returns for 108 yards in 2007. A three-time Academic All-Big 12 performer, Peterson was an Academic All-Region selection in 2008.

Peterson received his bachelor's degree in sport management from Texas A&M in 2009 in addition to his master's degree in education curriculum and instruction in 2010. He and his wife, Missy, have three daughters, Ellie, Emery and Everly.

STANTON WEBER

Special Teams Coordinator

Kansas State, 2015

kstatesports.com/CoachWeber

@stantonweber

A former special teams standout and four-year staff member at Kansas State, Stanton Weber is in his first season as the Wildcats' special teams coordinator in 2026.

Weber has spent the last three seasons as the special teams coordinator at Toledo as he was named a finalist for the 2024 Special Teams Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop in addition to the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) 35 Under 35 Leadership Institute.

Prior to his time at Toledo, he spent two seasons as a special teams analyst at South Carolina after getting his start in coaching at K-State, first as an offensive graduate assistant in 2017 and 2018 before becoming a special teams quality control coach in 2019 and 2020.

Weber presided over five All-Mid-American Conference (MAC) honorees during his tenure at Toledo, including three-straight kickoff return specialists, a punt returner and a kicker. Additionally, the Rockets blocked six punts over his three years.

In 2025, Weber helped the Rockets earn an 8-4 record and a trip to the Boca Raton Bowl. Toledo finished the year leading the nation in total blocked kicks (5), ranked fifth in blocked punts (3), 19th in punt-return defense (4.22) and 34th in punt returns (11.48). Both kickoff returner Trayvon Rudolph (second team) and punt returner Bryson Hammer (third team) earned All-MAC honors. Rudolph ranked 39th nationally with a 21.6-yard average on kickoff returns, including one he returned 96 yards for a touchdown. Hammer ranked 15th in the country in punt-return average at 12.3, while his 333 total punt-return yards ranked sixth.

Under Weber, kickoff-returner Jacquez Stuart finished off his career with consecutive All-MAC First Team honors in 2023 and 2024. He led the MAC and finished fifth in the country in 2024 after averaging 34.0 yards per return – which was highlighted by a 98-yard touchdown – as the Rockets ranked 21st in the nation with a team average of 24.07 yards. The year prior, Stuart ranked third in the country with a 29.1-yard average. He totaled 582 kickoff-return yards on the year, which included a 97-yard score to open the game against Buffalo.

The 2023 season also saw Weber guide Luke Pawlak to All-MAC Second Team accolades after connecting on 12-of-15 field goals (80.0%), which included a long of 44 yards in the season opener at Illinois as part of a season-high three field goals.

In 2024, Weber's special teams ranked in the top 30 in blocked punts (20th; 1), kickoff returns (21st; 24.07), punt returns (22nd; 12.95), punt return defense (27th; 4.89) and blocked kicks (27th; 2). His 2023 units ranked highly in blocked punts (3rd; 2) and kickoff-return defense (11th; 16.00).

Prior to his time at Toledo, Weber spent two seasons as a special teams analyst at South Carolina. In 2022, the Gamecocks were ranked No. 1 in the country in special teams efficiency by ESPN, led the SEC in punt-return average and had the nation's longest kickoff return of the season (100 yards) against Texas A&M. They were also second in the SEC in yards per punt and were 11-of-11 on field goal attempts.

A native of Overland Park, Kansas, Weber was a three-time First Team Academic All-Big 12 performer as a wide receiver and special teams standout for the Wildcats from 2011-15. A team captain as a senior in 2015, Weber played in 46 career games and finished with 19 tackles. He helped K-State accumulate a 34-18 record, earn a Big 12 Championship in 2012 and advance to five straight bowl games.

Weber comes from an athletic family, all of whom played collegiately at Kansas State. His father, Stan, was a quarterback for the Wildcats from 1980-84 and is currently the lead analyst on the K-State Sports Network; his brother Landry was a wide receiver for the Wildcats from 2017-21; and his sister McKenzi played volleyball at K-State from 2016-19.

Weber has three degrees from Kansas State, earning his bachelor's (2015) and master's (2016) degrees in accounting prior to obtaining an MBA in 2019. He and his wife, Natalie, were married in July of 2022.

CHRISTIAN ELLSWORTH

Assistant Coach
Quarterbacks
Northern Iowa, 2019

kstatesports.com/CoachEllsworth
@Coach_Ellsworth

A former Wildcat staffer with strong ties to the Midwest, Christian Ellsworth is in his first season as Kansas State's quarterbacks coach in 2026.

Ellsworth returns to Manhattan after serving the last two seasons at Texas A&M, first as a senior offensive analyst and then as the program's tight ends coach. He also previously worked at South Carolina (2022) and Nebraska (2023).

His stint at Texas A&M isn't the only time he has coached with head coach Collin Klein having worked as an offensive graduate assistant at K-State in 2020 and 2021. Additionally, he was a true freshman quarterback at Northern Iowa when Klein tutored that position group.

In his first season as a full-time assistant coach in 2025, Ellsworth's tight ends combined to tally 43 receptions for 435 yards and four touchdowns in addition to being an integral part in the running game as the Aggies averaged 184.7 rushing yards per game. Texas A&M ranked 19th in the country in scoring offense (33.8 points per game) and 23rd in total offense (444.5 yards per game).

In his first season in College Station in 2024, Ellsworth helped the Aggies earn a 5-0 start in conference play, the program's best start in the SEC. Texas A&M finished the year ranking 26th nationally and second in the SEC in rushing offense (195.5 yards per game).

Ellsworth began his coaching career with a two-year stint as an offensive graduate assistant at K-State in 2020 and 2021. During his first year on staff, the Wildcats ranked fourth nationally and tops in the Big 12 in red zone percentage (93.9%). The following year, the Wildcats placed in the top 30 in the country in fourth down percentage (6th; 75.0%), completion percentage (22nd; 65.6%), fewest interceptions thrown (23rd; 7) and third down percentage (30th; 43.8%).

Spending the 2022 season at South Carolina – the same staff that K-State special teams coordinator Stanton Weber served on – Ellsworth helped the Gamecocks rank No. 23 in the final Associated Press Top 25 thanks to consecutive top-10 victories over Tennessee and Clemson. He then moved to Nebraska in 2023 where he worked with the Husker tight ends and quarterbacks as an offensive analyst.

A decorated high school player, Ellsworth was a three-time all-state performer at Grand Island Northwest in Grand Island, Nebraska. At the end of his prep career, Ellsworth held the Nebraska state records for career passing yards, career completions, career touchdowns, single game completions, single game attempts and season completions.

Ellsworth earned his bachelor's degree from Northern Iowa in 2019 in digital media leadership with an emphasis in sports broadcasting, while he obtained his master's degree in academic advising from Kansas State in 2022. He and his wife, Cassidy, have a daughter, Ada, and a son, Brooks.

JEREMIAH JOHNSON

Assistant Coach
Defensive Backs
Kansas, 2000

kstatesports.com/CoachJohnson
@Coach_J_Johnson

Jeremiah Johnson, a 24-year defensive coaching veteran who has 13 years of coordinator experience, is in his first season as a defensive backs coach at Kansas State in 2026.

Johnson comes to Manhattan after serving one season as the defensive coordinator at Coastal Carolina in addition to being the Chanticleers' interim head coach for the Independence Bowl. He has also been a defensive coordinator at Northern Iowa (2014-2021, 2023), Kent State (2022) and Louisiana Tech (2024).

In 2025, Johnson helped Coastal advance to its sixth-straight bowl game. The Chanticleers ranked 13th nationally and second in the Sun Belt in fourth down defense (40.0%) and sixth in fumble recoveries (11). He has helped Xamarion Gordon to a No. 2 national ranking in fumble recoveries (3) and a No. 5 ranking in the conference in interceptions (3). Myles Woods also had three interceptions on the year, while Johnson has coached Ezekiel Durham-Campbell to a No. 10 ranking in the conference in sacks (0.46 per game).

The Johnson-led Louisiana Tech defense in 2024 ranked 12th nationally in total defense, surrendering only 308.4 yards per game. It was a 98-spot improvement over where the Bulldogs finished in 2023, while his unit also produced a 91-place improvement in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) as they finished at No. 26. Additionally, Johnson led La Tech to an 88-place bump in rushing defense (135.5 yards per game) to rank 44th.

Outside of a one-year hiatus in which he served the 2022 season as Kent State's defensive coordinator – where he tutored Nico Bolden to a No. 9 nationally ranking in solo tackles (5.7 per game – Johnson coached for 16 seasons at Northern Iowa, spending the 2007 through 2021 seasons – in addition to the 2023 campaign – in Cedar Falls. While at UNI, Johnson coached Panther defenders to a combined 32 All-Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) First Team honors, five MVFC Defensive Players of the Year, one Buck Buchanan Award winner, 15 Associated Press FCS All-America honors and seven American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-American accolades.

In 11 seasons as the UNI defensive coordinator, Johnson's defenses ranked in the top 10 nationally in statistical categories 29 times, which included turnovers gained on six occasions (highest ranking of No. 2 in 2019 with 34), defensive touchdowns four times (highest ranking of No. 5 in 2016 and 2019 with 4) and scoring defense three times (best ranking of No. 6 at 15.3 points per game in the Spring of 2021). During his first run as defensive coordinator from 2014 through 2021, UNI ranked sixth in the FCS by allowing 19.9 points per game over a 99-game span. He was also named a finalist for the 2019 FootballScoop FCS Defensive Coordinator of the Year award.

The Panthers won four conference championships during Johnson's time at UNI. Additionally, they made 10 FCS Playoff appearances and advanced past the first round in eight of 10 seasons, which included a semifinal showing in 2008 and quarterfinal appearances in 2015 and 2019.

In 2023, Johnson's defense specialized in stopping the run as Northern Iowa ranked seventh in the nation in rushing defense (96.6 yards per game), while the Panthers ranked 23rd in first downs allowed (194).

Johnson oversaw a 2021 unit that ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense (87.1 yards allowed per game) and fourth down defense (28.6%), while UNI finished No. 6 in turnovers gain (26), No. 9 in third down defense (30.5%), No. 13 in total (305.3 yards allowed per game) and scoring (18.0 points allowed per game) defense, No. 14 in sacks (2.92 per game), and No. 18 in both interceptions (14) and first downs allowed (190).

That came on the heels of a strong campaign in the spring of 2021 as, despite the shortened COVID season, UNI had the No. 8 red zone defense (66.7%) and No. 17 total defense (284.9 yards allowed per game).

The 2019 season saw the Panthers boast one of the most impressive defenses in the FCS as Johnson led the UNI to top-10 marks in turnovers gained (No. 2 with 34), interceptions (No. 3 with 19), fumbles recovered (No. 4 with 15), defensive touchdowns (No. 5 with 4), scoring defense (No. 7 at 17.7 points allowed per game), and total defense (No. 9 at 297.7 yards allowed per game), helping propel the Panthers to the FCS quarterfinals with postseason wins over San Diego and South Dakota.

Johnson's defense ranked in the top 20 of five statistical categories in 2018, highlighted by top-10 rankings in passes intercepted (No. 6 with 18), defensive touchdowns (No. 7 with 4) and turnovers gained (No. 10 with 27). That season, the Panthers produced the 17th-ranked scoring defense (21.3 points allowed per game) and the nation's 20th-ranked red zone defense (74.4%).

UNI's defense under Johnson in 2017 finished among the nation's best in passes intercepted (No. 4 with 21) and turnovers gained (No. 5 with 31). He directed a 2016 defensive unit that ranked ninth in the country in total defense (310.2 yards allowed per game), while it ranked 12th in the nation in interceptions (17). The Panthers also excelled at getting to the quarterback that season, finishing the year at No. 18 in sacks (2.64 per game).

Johnson tutored five defenders to All-MVFC selections in 2016. The list was highlighted by MVFC Defensive Player of the Year Karter Schult, who won the Buck Buchanan Award as the best defensive player in the FCS.

During the 2015 season, Johnson's defense ranked third nationally in turnovers gained (31), ninth in red zone defense (66.7%), 13th in interceptions (17), 16th in scoring defense (19.6 points allowed per game) and 18th in rushing defense (124.2 yards allowed per game).

Forcing turnovers was the Panthers' specialty in 2014 as their 31 turnovers gained ranked fourth in the country, while they ranked 12th nationally in both interceptions (17) and fumble recoveries (14). Northern Iowa also ranked 14th in total defense (314.7 yards allowed per game) and 15th in scoring defense (19.9 points allowed per game). Those numbers were due to the ability to force a negative play as Johnson's defense finished third nationally in sacks (3.64 per game) and 10th in tackles for loss (8.5 per game).

The Panther defense was impressive during Johnson's debut season as defensive coordinator in 2013. Led by a young defensive core, the Panthers boasted the nation's eighth-ranked scoring defense (18.8 points allowed per game) in addition to top-30 national rankings in total defense (No. 19 by allowing 334.5 yards per game), sacks (No. 19 with 2.58 per game), passing efficiency defense (No. 24 at 114.84), rushing defense (No. 29 by allowing 131.6 yards per game) and fumbles recovered (No. 28 with 11).

Before being promoted to coordinator, Johnson coached the defensive backs and served as the recruiting coordinator from 2009 through 2012. In 2007 and 2008, he was the video coordinator and assistant defensive backs coach.

Johnson went to UNI after working the 2003 through 2006 seasons at Loras College, serving on the same staff as former K-State head coach Chris Klieman. Johnson worked with the Duhawk defensive backs in 2003, 2004 and 2006, while he coached the wide receivers in 2005. Prior to his time at Loras, he was a graduate assistant and video coordinator at Wyoming in 2002.

A native of Scandia, Kansas, Johnson obtained his undergraduate degree in sports science from Kansas in 2000, while he earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Loras in 2005. Johnson and his wife, Nicki, have a son, Lane, and a daughter, Drew.

BRIAN LEPAK

Assistant Coach
Tight Ends
Oklahoma, 2010

kstatesports.com/CoachLepak
@CoachBrianLepak

Brian Lepak, who has had a hand in K-State's offensive success since his arrival in 2021, is in his sixth season overall at K-State in 2026 and fourth as the Wildcats' tight ends coach. After arriving as a Senior Offensive Quality Control Coach in 2021 and working with the Wildcat offensive line in 2025, Lepak returns to the tight end position, one he coached from 2022 through 2024.

Lepak (pronounced luh-PACK) has found quick success during his first four years as a full-time coach for the Wildcats, tutoring tight end Ben Sinnott to All-Big 12 First Team accolades in both 2022 and 2023, while the Wildcats had two tight ends pick up All-Big 12 honors in 2024 in Garrett Oakley (second team) and Will Swanson (honorable mention). It was the first time since 1997 that the Wildcats had a pair of All-Big 12 tight ends in the same season, while Oakley's second-team designation marked the first time in the Big 12 era that K-State had a first- or second-team all-conference tight end in three straight seasons.

While tutoring the offensive line in 2025, Lepak coached center Sam Hecht to All-Big 12 First Team honors in addition to receiving votes for the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year award before being selected in the 2026 NFL Draft by Carolina. Additionally, tackle John Pastore was a second-team selection. Under Lepak's guidance, the offensive line helped K-State rank fifth in school history by averaging 5.09 yards per carry, which included a school-record three rushes of at least 75 yards. One of those was an 80-yard rush at Utah during a school-record 472-yard rushing output, bettering a school record that had stood for 71 years. During the game against the Utes, the Lepak's unit blocked for a school record 293 rushing yards by Joe Jackson, bettering Darren Sproles' mark set in 2004. In terms of pass protection, the Wildcats finished the 2025 season ranked 10th nationally in sacks allowed per game (1.08).

In 2024, Lepak's tight end unit combined for a nation-leading 13 touchdown receptions. Five of those came from Oakley, which tied for the second most in school history by a tight end and third by any sophomore. Oakley went on to break the school record for career receiving touchdowns by a tight end during the 2025 season (13), while he ranks fourth in catches (71) and fifth in yards (779).

An integral part of the offensive staff, Lepak helped Kansas State finish in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories in 2024 as it ranked second in rushing yards per carry at 6.08 (first in Big 12), 10th in sacks allowed per game at 1.00 (second in Big 12), 11th in rushing yards per game at 215.5 (second in Big 12) and 12th in tackles for loss allowed per game at 3.92 (third in Big 12). Lepak also helped the 2024 Wildcats rank in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories. Among those were school records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08), while K-State tied for third in passing touchdowns (25), ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549), sixth in rushing yards (2,801), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in both passing yards (2,749) and pass attempts (383).

Over his first two seasons tutoring the K-State tight ends, Lepak coached Sinnott to top-10 rankings nationally among the position group in receiving yards (third), receptions (fourth) and receiving touchdowns (tied for eighth). Sinnott left K-State by tying for the most career receiving touchdowns by a tight end (10) in addition to ranking third among the position in receptions (82) and fourth in receiving yards (1,138).

Under Lepak's leadership, Sinnott had a banner year as a junior in 2023 as he earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from Phil Steele and was a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award, the first player in school history to be named a semifinalist for the award that is presented annually to the nation's top tight end. All Sinnott did was record the most single-season receptions (49), receiving yards (676) and receiving touchdowns (6) by a tight end in school history, marks that each ranked in the top five nationally among the position group.

Sinnott was selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft – No. 53 overall – by the Washington Commanders, the highest-drafted tight end in school history.

Lepak's position group – a diverse one that not only excels in the passing game but also in run blocking – helped the 2023 Wildcat offense rank in the top 30 nationally in 11 offensive categories, including scoring (10th – 37.1 points per game), rushing (11th – 204.1 yards per game), third down conversions (11th – 47.9%), rushing touchdowns (12th – 32) and first downs (12th – 310). The Wildcats ranked 30th nationally in red zone offense (89.23%) but were second in the country by scoring touchdowns on 78.46% of their red zone attempts.

K-State also ranked in the top 10 in school history in 32 game or season categories in 2023. Among those was a school-record 30 passing touchdowns, No. 2 rankings in offensive yards per game (445.2) and first downs (310), and No. 3 showings in total yards (5,788) and completions (258). Thanks to his work, Lepak was named the Big 12 Tight Ends Coach of the Year by Our Coaching Network.

In Lepak's first season coaching the tight ends, Sinnott averaged 14.4 yards per catch to rank fourth nationally as he earned his first All-Big 12 honor. The K-State fullbacks and tight ends helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 title thanks to an offensive unit that ranked in the top 10 in school history in 11 categories, including ranking second in offensive yards (5,863) and plays (958), fourth in rushing yards (2,916) and fifth in yards per game (418.8).

The Wildcats ranked 15th in the country in rushing yards per game (208.3) in 2022, their highest national ranking since placing ninth in 2003. Additionally, K-State's 210.5 passing yards per game and 421.6 total yards per game were the most since the 2014 season.

Lepak came to K-State prior to the 2021 season as a Senior Offensive Quality Control Coach, before tutoring the Wildcat fullbacks and tight ends in K-State's victory over LSU in the Texas Bowl.

Prior to coming to Manhattan, Lepak served one year as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Southern. Under Lepak's watch, all five Southern offensive linemen earned All-SWAC honors, including three first-team performers.

Lepak spent the previous three seasons as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. While on the Sooner staff, he helped lead the team to three consecutive Big 12 Championships and College Football Playoff appearances. In 2018, the offensive line was honored by winning the Joe Moore Award for the nation's most outstanding offensive line unit. He went to Oklahoma after spending the 2014 through 2016 seasons as a graduate assistant at Indiana.

A native of Claremore, Oklahoma, Lepak was an offensive lineman for two seasons at Colorado State before transferring to Oklahoma where he spent three years, including the 2010 Big 12 Championship season, while he was an Academic All-American that year.

After completing his playing career, Lepak was awarded the Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholar Award and attended law school at the University of Oklahoma College of Law where he was a member of the Oklahoma Law Review. He graduated in 2014 and was admitted to the Oklahoma Bar Association the same year. In addition to his law degree, he has dual degrees in Accounting and Finance from the OU Price College of Business where he was the Outstanding Senior in Accounting.

Lepak and his wife, Colleen, have four children, Thomas, Penelope, Luke and Margaret.

An experienced skill position coach with eight years of work at Power 4 schools after a highly-successful stint as a high school head coach, Cory Patterson is in his first season coaching the Kansas State running backs in 2026.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Patterson most recently served as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State, where he coached five backs to a combined 1,172 yards and six touchdowns. Prior to that, he was the associate head coach and wide receivers coach at Purdue in addition to coaching five seasons at Illinois, the first three coaching the tight ends before moving to running backs for the final two campaigns.

During his lone season in Stillwater, Patterson coached five running backs that combined for 1,172 rushing yards and six touchdowns. The Cowboys were led by Rodney Fields Jr. – who transferred to K-State for the 2026 season – as he rushed for 614 yards and a score while recording 276 receiving yards and a touchdown on 28 catches during his redshirt freshman season.

In 2024, Patterson helped Purdue wide receiver Max Klare rank among the top 15 in the Big Ten in both receptions and receiving yards, while Jahmal Edrine was eighth in the conference with 15.9-yard average on 23 receptions. The year prior, Patterson coached Deion Burks to All-Big Ten Second Team honors after he led the Boilermakers in receptions (47), receiving yards (629) and touchdowns (7). His seven receiving touchdowns ranked fourth in the Big Ten.

During his final year at Illinois in 2022, Patterson guided Chase Brown to an All-America season in addition to being a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top running back. Brown rushed for 1,643 yards, an average of 136.9 yards per game to rank third in the country. Under Patterson's tutelage, the Illinois running back produced a 100-yard rushing game on a nation-leading 10 occasions. Brown went on to be selected in the 2023 NFL Draft by Cincinnati and has been the Bengals' starting running back each of the last two seasons.

In Patterson's first season as Illinois running backs coach in 2021, he coached Brown to a campaign of 1,005 yards and five touchdowns as he became the program's 14th 1,000-yard rusher en route to All-Big Ten Third Team honors. Brown's season total was boasted by a 223-yard output during a 20-18 nine-overtime win at No. 7 Penn State – the longest game in college football history – as he produced the most rushing yards ever by an opponent at Beaver Stadium. Paired with his career-high 257 rushing yards earlier in 2021 against Charlotte, Brown joined Illini legends Howard Griffith (1990) and Rashard Mendenhall (2007) as the only players in program history with multiple 200-yard rushing games in a single season.

The 2021 season also saw Patterson coach true freshman Josh McCray to two 100-yard games in a breakout season. McCray ran for 142 yards at Penn State to mark the most rushing yards ever by an Illini true freshman against a ranked opponent, and he had a career-high 167 yards on a career-high 24 attempts at Purdue.

In 2019, Patterson helped Illinois earn a berth into the Redbox Bowl, marking the program's first bowl appearance in five years. He also helped coach the Fighting Illini to one of the biggest upsets in Big Ten history, a 24-23 victory over No. 6 Wisconsin.

During his time in Champaign, Patterson was key to Illinois' recruiting efforts, specifically in the St. Louis area. He signed two of the highest rated Illini recruits in the modern era, including four-star prospects Isaiah Williams and Shammond Cooper, who played under Patterson in high school.

Patterson began his coaching career in the high school ranks, first as an assistant at Christian Brothers College High School in St. Louis from 2009 to 2012, then at Trinity Catholic as an offensive coordinator in 2013 and 2014 before taking over as head coach from 2015 to 2017.

Under Patterson, Trinity Catholic established itself as one of the top high school programs in St. Louis and the state of Missouri. Patterson compiled a record of 27-6 in his three seasons at the helm – earning Archdiocesan Athletic Association (AAA) Conference Coach of the Year honors all three years – while he led the Titans to the 2016 Missouri Class 2 state title game. The 2017 squad went 9-1, ending their season in the state semifinals.

As an assistant coach at Christian Brothers College High School, Patterson helped lead the team to a state championship and two district championships.

Prior to entering coaching, Patterson worked in corporate accounting in St. Louis but also spent his time volunteering as a youth football coach at a local Boys & Girls Club in the evenings. His passion to mentor young athletes drew him out of the corporate world and into coaching and teaching as a full-time profession.

Patterson is a 2002 finance graduate of Lindenwood University in St. Charles, Missouri. His collegiate playing career was cut short by a leg injury.

Patterson and his wife, Tiffany, have two daughters, Nyla and Nori.

Mike Schmidt, who has helped teams rank in the top 30 nationally in rushing offense seven times in his 14 seasons as a full-time assistant coach, is in his first season tutoring the Kansas State offensive line in 2026.

Schmidt comes to K-State after working the past two seasons as the rung game coordinator and offensive line coach at his alma mater, San Diego State. It was his second stint with the Aztecs as he also served as a graduate assistant from 2009 through 2011 and as the offensive line coach from 2012 through 2020. He has also worked at two Power 4 schools, guiding the Syracuse offensive line in 2021 and 2022 – the latter of which he was the run game coordinator – while he was the run game coordinator and worked with the tight ends and tackles at Mississippi State in 2023.

This past season at San Diego State, Schmidt coached an offensive line that led the way for a rushing attack that averaged 198.7 yards per game to rank 19th in the nation during a nine-win campaign. The Aztecs tallied six games with at least 200 rushing yards, culminating with a 326-yard, five-touchdown output against North Texas in the New Mexico Bowl. Schmidt tutored Ross Ulugalu-Maseuli to All-Mountain West First Team honors in addition to Christian Jones to second-team honors and Bayo Kannike to honorable-mention accolades.

Prior to returning to San Diego State and his one-year stint at Mississippi State, Schmidt spent two seasons at Syracuse as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach. In his first season with the Orange, Schmidt's offensive line ranked 16th in the nation – and tops in the ACC – with 213.5 rushing yards per game while they ranked 20th nationally and third in the conference by averaging 5.2 yards per carry. He coached Matthew Bergeron to All-ACC Honorable Mention accolades, while he picked up second-team honors in 2022. Bergeron went on to be selected in the second round of the 2023 NFL Draft by Atlanta.

Syracuse's 2,562 rushing yards in 2021 was the fifth most in school history, while they blocked for Sean Tucker, who ranked fourth nationally by averaging 124.7 rushing yards per game en route to First Team All-America honors and being named a semifinalist for the Doak Walker and Maxwell awards. Additionally, quarterback Garrett Shrade ran behind Schmidt's line to the tune of 781 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns, the second most ever by a Syracuse running back.

Schmidt's offensive lines dominated the running game during his first tenure at SDSU. The Aztecs ranked 16th nationally by combining to average 207.0 rushing yards per game from 2012 through 2020, while they ranked 24th in yards per attempt (4.8) and tied for 29th in rushing touchdowns (227).

Including his time as an offensive graduate assistant coach, San Diego State played in 10-straight bowl games from 2010 through 2019 and posted four 10-win seasons over the final six years of his first tenure.

Across his nine seasons as a full-time coach during his first tenure at San Diego State, Schmidt oversaw 15 different offensive linemen earn All-Mountain West honors, including six first-team recipients in his final six seasons. He also mentored multiple NFL Draft selections, including Nico Siragusa (2017 – Baltimore), Terry Poole (2015 – Seattle) and Keith Ismael (2020 – Washington).

During the 2020 campaign, San Diego State's offensive line made the Joe Moore Midseason Honor Roll for best offensive line in the country, allowing just one sack in 219 passing plays (0.46 pct) and only two pressures (0.91 pct). Kyle Spalding headed up the group, earning All-Mountain West First Team honors, while Zachary Thomas picked up second-team accolades.

The 2019 season saw three of Schmidt's lineman earn all-conference honors. Ismael, a first-team selection, was graded as the second-best center in the nation by Pro Football Focus. Both guards, Daishawn Dixon and William Dunkle, also garnered second-team and honorable-mention accolades, respectively. The year prior, Schmidt coached two All-Mountain West performers in Ismael (first team) and Ryan Pope (second team).

Schmidt's offensive line in 2017 was young and inexperienced, but he turned into a force that paved the way for Consensus All-American running back Rashaad Penny, who led the nation with 2,027 rushing yards. As a result, Tyler Roemer garnered Freshman All-America honors from USA TODAY, joining Ismael, also a redshirt freshman, on the All-Mountain West second team. That season, SDSU ranked 10th in the nation by rushing for 252.5 yards per game.

The 2016 Aztecs set program records in rushing yards (3,680), rushing touchdowns (34), rushing yards per carry (5.8) and points (493) behind Schmidt's offensive line, which was led by Siragusa, a First Team All-America selection. Schmidt's unit helped San Diego State rank seventh nationally with an average of 262.9 rushing yards per game.

Under Schmidt's tutelage, Siragusa and Pearce Slater both earned All-Mountain West First team honors in 2015, the first time in conference history that the Aztecs had two first-teamers on the offensive line and first time in any league since 1998. It was also the fourth-straight season multiple linemen earned all-conference honors. The Aztecs finished the season ranked fifth nationally in red zone offense (94.1%), 14th in rushing yards per game (233.3) and 17th in time of possession (32:43).

In 2014, Schmidt coached two All-Mountain West recipients in Poole (first team) and Darrell Greene (honorable mention), marking the third straight season that at least two Aztec offensive linemen were honored by the league. He paved the way for a line that averaged 216.1 rushing yards per game to rank 26th in the country. The year prior, the Aztecs ran for at least 2,000 yards and produced a 1,000-yard rusher for the fifth-straight year as Bryce Quigley (second team) and Poole (honorable mention) were both earned all-conference honors.

His first year as a full-time coach, Schmidt guided three players – Nik Embernate (first team), Alec Johnson (second team) and Quigley (honorable mention) – to All-Mountain West honors, which led the way for a school-record 2,869 rushing yards. The Aztecs finished Schmidt's inaugural season as a full-time coach ranked 20th in the nation with 220.7 rushing yards per game.

Schmidt received his start in coaching as an offensive graduate assistant – working primarily with the offensive line – at San Diego State from 2009 to 2011. While in that role, the Aztecs ranked tied for fifth nationally in fewest sacks allowed (0.69 per game) in 2010 and seventh (0.85 per game) in 2011.

A native of San Diego, California, Schmidt played offensive line for the Aztecs from 2005 to 2008, including serving as a team captain his senior season. A former walk-on as a defensive lineman, he changed sides of the ball and earned a scholarship in the fall of 2007.

Schmidt graduated from San Diego State with his bachelor's degree in criminal justice in the fall of 2009. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Brayden and Beau.

NICK TOTH

Assistant Coach
Linebackers
Ohio, 1999

@CoachNickToth

A veteran college football coach who has worked with all three levels of the defense during his 25-year career, Nick Toth is in his first season as Kansas State's linebackers coach in 2026.

Toth (pronounced TOETH) comes to Manhattan from Air Force where he served the last four seasons as the Falcons' safeties coach. He brings seven years of defensive coordinator experience to K-State, serving in the role at Mercyhurst (2006), Ashland (2007-08) and Fresno State (2012-15), while he called the Air Force defense during the second half of the 2025 season. He has also been part of 13 teams that have advanced to postseason play.

In 2024, Toth was part of a Falcon defense unit that led the Mountain West Conference in total defense (341.9 yards per game), while Air Force ranked third nationally first down defense (204) and 27th in passing defense (188.5 yards per game). His work in 2024 came on the heels of helping safety Trey Taylor win the 2023 Jim Thrope Award as the nation's top defensive back, while Taylor was also a First Team All-American. Toth helped the Falcons to the No. 1 total defense in the Mountain West Conference for five-straight seasons.

Toth was part of an Air Force defensive staff in 2022 that led the nation in total defense by allowing 254.4 yards per game, while the Falcons ranked second in pass defense (159.1 yards per game), third in scoring defense (13.4 yards per game) and fifth in rushing defense (95.3 yards per game). The 13.4 points allowed per game ranked sixth in program history.

Toth went to Air Force after working with the outside linebackers at Oregon in 2021. He coached All-American defensive end Kayvon Thibodeaux, who was a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and Bronko Nagurski Trophy before he was the fifth-overall pick in the 2022 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. That season, the Ducks finished with a 10-4 record, won the Pac-12 North and played in the Alamo Bowl.

Prior to his year at Oregon, Toth spent three seasons at UCF as the Knights' special teams coordinator. UCF won the 2018 American Athletic Conference (AAC) Championship and earned a berth into the Fiesta Bowl during his first season, while the Knights produced a 10-3 record in 2019 that was capped by a win over Marshall in the Gasparilla Bowl. In 2019, UCF rose to as high as No. 7 in the Associated Press Top-25, while it went 6-4 in the COVID season of 2020.

The Knights' special teams units played an integral role in the team's success in 2018, blocking a pair of field goals and inducing four other misses. Placekicker Matthew Wright earned All-AAC honors after connecting on 85.7% of his field goal attempts to rank 15th in the nation. Wright also collected 110 total points, the third most in a single season in UCF history.

Toth's first stint at Air Force came in 2017 when he coached the Falcon spurs/nickels, helping USAFA rank 10th in the country in passing defense (171.1 yards per game).

Prior to his first stint in Colorado Springs, Toth worked five seasons at Fresno State as the inside linebackers coach in addition to serving as the defensive coordinator the first four years. His defense earned 17 All-Mountain West selections and one unanimous All-American in safety Phillip Thomas in 2012. Thomas was a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, won the CFPA Defensive Back Trophy and was the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year after leading the nation with eight interceptions.

After having only nine turnovers gained the year before Toth's hiring, Fresno State came back in 2012 and recorded the greatest turnover turnaround in the FBS since the turn of the century. Finishing with 35 takeaways in 2012 (ranking fifth in the FBS), the Bulldogs' differential in turnovers gained in one season under Toth was plus-26.

His 2013 defense ranked sixth in the nation with more than three sacks per game and 40 total for the season, while the Bulldogs ranked fourth with 8.2 tackles for loss per game. Over the 2012 and 2013 seasons, Fresno State and Stanford were the only schools in the country to rank in the top 10 in sacks both years.

Toth's lone experience in the Big 12 came at Texas A&M in 2010 and 2011 – the Aggies' final two years in the conference – as he coached the outside linebackers and special teams. In College Station, Toth oversaw the development of linebacker Von Miller, who captured the prestigious Butkus Award during an All-America campaign in 2010. Miller went on to be the No. 2 overall pick of the Denver Broncos in the 2011 NFL Draft. He was also responsible for coaching the No. 1 kicker in the nation, Lou Groza Award winner Randy Bullock.

Prior to his two seasons at Texas A&M, Toth was the defensive backs coach and oversaw the special teams at The Citadel in 2009. He went there after three years as a defensive coordinator, working at Mercyhurst (Pennsylvania) in 2006 and Ashland (Ohio) in 2007 and 2008.

Toth coached defensive backs at Elon (2005), defensive linemen at Ohio (2004) and defensive backs at Dakota State (2002). He was also the special teams coordinator at Elon, spent the 2003 season as the tight ends coach at Ohio and was a defensive graduate assistant with the Bobcats from 2000-01.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Toth played both running back and defensive back for Ohio University from 1994 to 1999. He earned his undergraduate degree in political science from Ohio in 1999 in addition to a master's degree in athletic administration in 2002.

Toth and his wife, Jennifer, have three sons – Nicholas IV, Michael and Johnathon – and one daughter – Susan.

BUDDY WYATT

Assistant Coach
Defensive Line
TCU, 1990

kstatesports.com/CoachWyatt
@CoachBuddyWyatt

Buddy Wyatt, a respected defensive line coach who has worked in the Big 12, SEC, Big Ten and American Athletic Conference during his more than 30 years in the profession, is in his eighth season at Kansas State in 2026 coaching along the defensive line.

In his seven seasons on staff, Wyatt has tutored defensive ends to 10 All-Big 12 honors, including five first-team accolades. Wyatt's ends have helped the Wildcats average 22.7 points allowed points per game over the last five seasons – a span of 65 games – to rank 29th nationally, 20th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 programs.

Wyatt has guided K-State players to three Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year honors over his first seven seasons in Manhattan. In fact, when adding in his time coaching Adam Carriker at Nebraska to the honor in 2006, Wyatt has tutored the most Big 12 Defensive Linemen of the Year in league history.

The latest recipient of the award was Brendan Mott in 2024, who also earned All-Big 12 First Team honors. Mott, who also picked up votes from the league's coaches for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, ranked 26th nationally and was tops in the Big 12 in sacks (0.65 sacks per game), while he tied for fourth in the Big 12 in tackles for loss. He led a defensive unit that finished with a No. 25 national ranking in sacks at 2.69 per game, which was its best ranking since 2015. Of the 35 total sacks on the year, 23 came from Wyatt's ends.

In addition to sacks, Wyatt helped coach a K-State defensive unit that ranked in the top 30 nationally in two defensive categories as the Wildcats finished fourth in fourth down defense at 32.1% (first in Big 12) and 28th in rushing yards allowed per game at 118.7 (second in Big 12). K-State's rushing defense ranking and average its best since 2007.

Wyatt tutored two players to All-Big 12 honors in 2023 with Khalid Duke earning second-team honors in addition to earning votes for the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year award, while Mott was an honorable mention pick. Wyatt's defensive ends helped the Wildcats finish the season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight defensive categories, placing 11th in third-down defense (30.2%), 16th in fumbles recovered (10), 18th in pass efficiency defense (118.63), 20th in turnovers gained (23), 25th in interceptions (13), 26th in scoring defense (21.0), 28th in first downs allowed (225) and 30th in red zone defense (89.2%). Although the Wildcats allowed points in nearly 90% of their opponents' red zone attempts, only 39.4% of those resulted in touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Wyatt's defensive ends in 2022 were headlined by Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Felix Anudike-Uzomah, who earned All-Big 12 First Team honors each of the final two seasons of his career. Wyatt helped Anudike-Uzomah tie for fourth in K-State history in career forced fumbles (8) and sixth in career sacks (20.5). Anudike-Uzomah also picked up multiple All-American designations – including a first-team honor from USA TODAY – and was a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy. He was selected in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft by Kansas City, the Wildcats' first first-round draft pick since 2009. Along with Anudike-Uzomah, Wyatt tutored a breakout season for Mott, who ranked sixth in the Big 12 with 6.0 sacks.

The duo was part of a position group led by Wyatt that helped K-State rank in the top 30 nationally in five categories. One of those was scoring defense, as Wyatt assisted in K-State's transition from a four-down alignment to a three-man front prior to the 2021 season.

In 2021, Wyatt and his defensive ends helped K-State rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 by allowing just 21.0 points per game – 11.2 less than the year prior – which was the Wildcats' best effort since 2003. K-State also only permitted 344.7 total yards per game – its best mark since 2009 – to rank third in the Big 12 and 29th in the nation. That effort included just 129.5 yards allowed on the ground, the fewest by the Wildcats in four seasons. The Wildcat defensive ends helped K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Wyatt coached Anudike-Uzomah, then a sophomore, to All-America honors, while he was the co-Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree. Anudike-Uzomah, who also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, tied for the national lead in forced fumbles per game (0.46), while he ranked 11th nationally and second in the Big 12 in sacks per game (0.85). His 11.0 total sacks tied for fifth in school history, and his six forced fumbles tied the school record. Opposite Anudike-Uzomah, Wyatt tutored Nate Matlack, who earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year award as he played in every game with starts in the final three contests and totaled 3.5 sacks.

Wyatt coached Wyatt Hubert in 2020 to another All-Big 12 First Team honor from the league's coaches – and was the only unanimous choice on defense – as he tied for third in the Big 12 and 16th in the nation in sacks. Hubert again earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player and Defensive Lineman of the Year awards in 2020. Thanks to Wyatt's teachings, Hubert finished his career tied for eighth in school history with 20.0 career sacks, while he left ranking seventh in the nation among active players in sacks per game (0.59) and 10th in tackles for loss per game (1.00). Hubert went on to be selected in the 2021 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

Arriving at K-State for the 2019 season, Wyatt went right to work with two dynamic ends, coaching senior Reggie Walker to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades and Hubert to All-Big 12 First Team honors. Under Wyatt, Hubert also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year awards. Hubert tied for second in the Big 12 in sacks and ranked 10th in tackles for loss.

Wyatt came to Manhattan after serving as a senior analyst at Kansas in 2018. His previous full-time assistant coaching job was tutoring the SMU defensive line from 2015 to 2017. SMU's defense was stout with Wyatt's help as the 2016 Mustangs were statistically one of the 10 most improved in college football. SMU forced 26 turnovers overall that season, one of two Mustang defenses during that three-year stretch to finish in the top 20 in turnovers. SMU also ranked 38th nationally with 31 sacks in 2017 – including eight in one game – and 30th nationally with 90 tackles for loss.

Wyatt's tenure in Manhattan is his seventh tour of duty in the Big 12 having coached at Oklahoma State (1996), Colorado (1999), Texas A&M (2000-02, 2008-09), Nebraska (2007) and Kansas (2010-14, 2018).

During his second stint with the Aggies, Wyatt helped Texas A&M rank 15th in the country with 35 sacks. The group was headlined by a Wyatt protégé in defensive end/linebacker Von Miller, who had 17.0 sacks that season. Miller, a two-time All-American, went on to become an NFL All-Pro player and MVP of Super Bowl 50.

Helping teams advance to 13 bowls during his career, Wyatt has also worked at a pair of Big Ten schools in Minnesota (1992-95) and Northwestern (1997-98), in addition to SEC school Alabama (2003-06).

A native of Victoria, Texas, Wyatt was a defensive lineman at TCU from 1986 to 1989. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from TCU in 1990 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Horned Frogs working with the defensive line in 1991.

Wyatt and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Fredrick and Ariel. Fred played at Northwestern and is the current defensive line coach at Air Force.

A 24-year college coaching veteran who has 12 years of coordinator experience, Marcel Yates is in his first season as Kansas State's cornerbacks coach in 2026.

A member of 17 bowl squads during his career, Yates most recently coached the secondary and served as the passing game coordinator at Texas Tech from 2022 through 2024. Yates, native of Los Angeles, California, spent six-straight years serving as a defensive coordinator, first at this alma mater, Boise State, in 2014 and 2015, and then at Arizona from 2016 through 2019.

Texas Tech had two of its best defensive seasons in recent history with Yates on staff as the Red Raiders allowed only 29.2 points per game in his debut season of 2022 before improving to 26.0 points per game average in 2023, its lowest mark since the 2009 season. The Red Raider secondary showed significant improvement under Yates' tutelage after surrendering only 256.8 passing yards per game in 2022, their lowest clip since 2014. That mark went further down in 2023 by allowing only 229.2 yards per game through the air.

Yates had six members from his position group garner All-Big 12 accolades during his tenure in Lubbock, which included Dadrion Taylor-Demerson, who closed his career with 10 interceptions to tie for 10th in program history. He later heard his name called during the 2024 NFL Draft as the Arizona Cardinals selected the safety in the fourth round. Taylor-Demerson became the 11th defensive back during Yates' career to be chosen in the NFL Draft and the sixth to go in the first four rounds. Yates had three other defensive backs sign free agent contracts during his Texas Tech tenure in Marquis Waters (New York Jets), Rayshad Williams (Las Vegas Raiders) and Tyler Owens (Washington Commanders).

Yates worked those three seasons at Texas Tech – and the two previous seasons at California (2020) and Oregon (2021) – alongside current K-State assistant head coach for defensive Tim DeRuyter.

Yates went to Texas Tech from Oregon, helping the Ducks produce one of the nation's most opportunistic defenses in the country in 2021, especially in the secondary where Oregon recorded 17 interceptions. Oregon closed the season ranked fifth in the country for total interceptions and 26th nationally with 22 takeaways following an appearance in the Valero Alamo Bowl and ranking 13th in the final College Football Playoff Top 25.

Oregon's success defending the pass continued a trend from Yates' season at Cal where the Golden Bears ranked 23rd nationally and second in the Pac-12 in passing yards allowed per game (197.8).

Yates' time at California came on the heels of spending four seasons as the defensive coordinator at Arizona from 2016 through 2019 where he worked with both the defensive backs and linebackers during various points of his tenure in Tucson. Arizona intercepted 19 passes in 2017 to tie for seventh nationally and rank as the most for the program since 1985, while the Wildcats forced 24 turnovers to tie for 23rd in the country. Redshirt freshman cornerback Lorenzo Burns picked off five passes – the second most nationally by a freshman – and junior corner Jace Whittaker added three picks for Yates' starting cornerback duo.

The 2017 season saw Yates coach one of the youngest defenses in the Pac-12 with his unit regularly starting five freshmen, including linebackers Tony Fields and Colin Schooler, along with rush end Kylan Wilborn. Each was a true freshman, with Fields finishing as the team's leading tackler with 104 stops – the most by any UA freshman in over 20 years – Schooler racking up 13.5 tackles for loss (all in conference play) – the most by a freshman at Arizona since at least 1997 – and Wilborn registering 7.5 sacks to lead all Power 5 freshmen.

All three players earned Freshman All-America honors in 2017, including Schooler, who was also named the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year. Additionally, six of Yates' defenders earned All-Pac-12 honors during his four years with the Wildcats.

Prior to Arizona, Yates spent a combined 11 seasons at Boise State, rising from cornerbacks (2003-05) and defensive backs (2006-11) coach to eventually being named the defensive coordinator (2014-15). In between, Yates spent two seasons as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Texas A&M (2012-13).

Boise State won 87.6% of its games during Yates' tenure, compiling a 127-18 record with nine seasons of at least 10 wins, including a pair of undefeated campaigns. The Broncos qualified for a bowl game in each of Yates' 11 seasons on staff and claimed eight conference championships (7 WAC, 1 Mountain West). Boise State concluded both undefeated seasons with victories in the Fiesta Bowl, defeating No. 10 Oklahoma to wrap the 2006 campaign and then No. 4 TCU to end a memorable 2009 campaign.

Yates excelled in developing often overlooked prospects into successful college football players and eventual NFL selections while at Boise State. From 2007 to 2016 alone, seven of Yates' defensive backs heard their names called during the NFL Draft with two more signing free agent deals on their way to long professional careers. Of those seven draft picks, four were selected in the first three rounds, which was highlighted by cornerback Kyle Wilson being selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

During his two seasons at Texas A&M, the Aggies were among the best teams in the country, helping the Aggies earn a No. 5 national ranking in 2012 as they won 11 games for the first time in 14 years. Texas A&M followed that with a 9-4 campaign in 2013, again concluding that season in the top 25 (No. 18).

Yates began his coaching career as an assistant secondary coach at Montana State in 2001 and 2002. In his second season, the Bobcats won their first Big Sky Conference title and earned their first trip to the NCAA Division I-AA (FCS) playoffs in 18 years.

Yates was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive back at Boise State (1996-99), which coincided with the school's first four years as a FBS program. His career culminated in the Broncos' first-ever bowl appearance, a victory over Louisville in the 1999 Humanitarian Bowl.

Yates earned his undergraduate degree in social science from Boise State in 2000. He has a son, Eric, and a daughter, Kaybrie.

Wisconsin-Milwaukee, 2016

An Army veteran who has worked at three Power 4 schools since 2016, Jeremy Jacobs is in his first season as Kansas State's Director of Strength and Conditioning.

Jacobs comes to Manhattan after working the last two seasons at Texas A&M as the Associate Director of Football Strength and Conditioning and Director of Football Applied Sports Science. While in College Station, Jacobs helped the Aggies earn a combined 19-7 record with a trip to the 2024 Las Vegas Bowl and 2025 College Football Playoff.

Prior to his time at Texas A&M, Jacobs held the same titles at Duke for the 2022 and 2023 seasons. He helped the Blue Devils go 16-9 over those two seasons, both resulting in bowl victories.

Jacobs served a six-year stint at LSU from 2016 to 2021 in a variety of roles. He concluded his time at LSU as the associate director of strength and conditioning for football in 2020 and 2021, while he also served as a strength and conditioning coach (2018-19) and graduate assistant coach (2016-17).

While in Baton Rouge, Jacobs wrote all aspects of the speed and conditioning program and FRC/mobility program. He was also responsible for all aspects of the team's perch velocity-based training system by creating daily, mesocycle, and macrocycle force/velocity and tonnage reports. In addition, he assisted in the creation of all GPS reporting to the coaching staff, sports medicine staff, and strength staff.

Jacobs spent the 2014 through 2016 seasons working as a student assistant at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. During his time with the Panthers, he assisted the head strength and conditioning coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach in training all men's and woman's teams. Additionally, Jacobs provided coaching on techniques and mechanics of strength, mobility, agility, power and cardiovascular training.

Before working in college athletics, Jacobs was the vice president for the non-profit Wisconsin Weightlifting organization in 2015 and 2016, while he was a coach/co-owner of Milwaukee Barbell from 2012 thought 2016.

Jacobs earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology – exercise science from Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2016. He obtained a master's degree in kinesiology – pedagogy and psychological from LSU in 2018.

Jacobs is a veteran of the United States Army, serving as an Airborne Ranger with the 2nd Ranger Battalion. He served multiple combat rotations to Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom.

Jacobs owns certifications as a strength and conditioning specialist and strength and conditioning coach from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), respectively. He is also a Level 1 USA weightlifting sports performance coach and a functional range conditioning specialist. In addition, he is CPR/AED/First Aid certified.

Jacobs and his wife, Alyssa, have a daughter, Beau Anna, and two sons, Fitzgerald and Milo.

A former high school coach in the Kansas City Metro area with ties to colleges within the region, Josh Buford enters his third season overall at K-State in 2026 and first as the program's inside receivers coach.

Buford is entering his second tenure at K-State having served as an offensive analyst in 2022 and 2023. He spent the previous two seasons at Texas A&M as assistant quarterbacks coach where he helped the Aggies to an 11-2 record and a berth into the College Football Playoff in 2025. This past season, the Aggies ranked in the top 30 nationally in scoring offense (20th; 33.8 points per game), total offense (23rd; 444.5 yards per game), tackles for loss allowed (3rd; 3.31 per game), fourth down percentage (9th; 70.6%), passing yards per completion (14th; 13.62), time of possession (16th; 32:30) and first downs (26th; 293). Additionally, Texas A&M hit the 400-yard mark in total offense 10 times in 2025.

He helped quarterback Marcel Reed to top-15 individual marks in 2025 in passing yards per completion (13th; 13.54), points responsible for (17th; 186) and passing touchdowns (17th; 25).

In his first season at Texas A&M in 2024, Buford helped the Aggies earn a 5-0 start in SEC play, while they boasted the No. 2 rushing offense in the SEC.

With Buford on K-State's staff in 2022 and 2023, the Wildcats earned a combined 19-8 record, which included a Big 12 Championship in 2022 and a pair of bowl berths. The 2022 Wildcat offense ranked in the top 10 in 11 school categories, while they scored 32.3 points per game to stand as the most by K-State since 2017. Additionally, the Wildcats ranked 15th in the country in rushing yards per game (208.3) – their highest national ranking since placing ninth in 2003 – while they totaled 210.5 passing yards per game and 421.6 total yards per game, their most since 2014.

The next season, K-State ranked 11th nationally in rushing offense (208.3 yards per game), first downs (23.8 per game) and third down conversions (47.9%), while the Wildcats were 14th in the country turnovers lost (12) and 21st in time of possession (31:52).

Buford came to Manhattan after serving as a defensive quality control coach and defensive recruiting coordinator at Hawai'i in 2021. Prior to Hawai'i, Buford was the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Park Hill High School in Kansas City from 2016 to 2020, while he was the head coach at Excelsior Springs High School from 2013 to 2015. He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant helping out with the wide receivers at his alma mater, Baker University, from 2006 to 2007.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and secondary education from Baker in 2006, while he also obtained a master's in educational leadership from the university in 2007. Additionally, Buford earned a specialist degree in education leadership in 2018 from Arkansas State.

TIM DeRUYTER

Assistant Head Coach for Defense

kstatesports.com/CoachDeRuyter
@TimDeRuyter

Air Force Academy, 1985

A veteran coach who has 29 years of experience as either a head coach or defensive coordinator, Tim DeRuyter is in his first season at K-State in 2026 as the program's assistant head coach for defense.

DeRuyter spent 21 consecutive years as either a defensive coordinator or head coach, serving as the coordinator at Ohio (2002-04), Nevada (2005-06), Air Force (2007-09), Texas A&M (2010-11), California (2017-20), Oregon (2021) and Texas Tech (2022-24).

He was the head coach at Fresno State from 2012 through 2016, guiding Fresno State to two Mountain West Conference titles while working alongside as current K-State defensive coordinator Jordan Peterson and linebackers coach Nick Toth.

A 2018 semifinalist for the Broyles Award given to the nation's top assistant coach, DeRuyter has coached teams that have advanced to 21 bowl games over his career and been part of six conference championship squads. Additionally, DeRuyter has tutored players to an impressive 132 all-conference selections during his three decades of experience at the collegiate level.

Most recently, DeRuyter was the defensive coordinator for the 2022 through 2024 seasons at Texas Tech. Over his first two seasons in Lubbock, the Red Raiders surrendered less than 30.0 points per game in consecutive years for the first time since the 2008-09 campaigns. That included the 2023 campaign in which Texas Tech allowed only 26.0 points per game – its lowest average since 2009 – en route to its second-consecutive season with a winning Big 12 record.

Under DeRuyter, the Red Raiders led the Big 12in both fourth down defense (34.4%) and red zone defense (74.1%), while ranking eighth and ninth in the country in the two categories, respectively. Additionally, Texas Tech was among the top teams in the country in limiting opponents to only a field goal as it led all Power 5 schools and ranked fourth in the FBS for red zone attempts that resulted in field goals.

DeRuyter's other Power 4 stops include serving as the defensive coordinator at Oregon (2021), California (2017-20) and Texas A&M (2010-11).

DeRuyter was the head coach at Fresno State from 2012 through 2016, leading the Bulldogs to back-to-back Mountain West Conference titles in 2012 and 2013 to mark Fresno State's first conference crown since 1999. It was the first time the Bulldogs had claimed consecutive conference championships since the 1992 and 1993 campaigns.

DeRuyter earned his bachelor's degree in management from the Air Force Academy in 1985 and added an MBA in market strategy from Regis University in 1992. A four-year letterwinner for the Falcons prior to earning his degree, DeRuyter spent two years in private business before returning to coaching in 1994.

DeRuyter and his wife, Kara, have a son, Jake, and a daughter, Christina.

Jordan Dove is in his first season at Kansas State in 2026 working with the Wildcat defensive tackles.

He came to Manhattan after spending the previous three seasons at South Carolina, first as a graduate assistant in 2023 and 2024, while he was a defensive assistant in 2025, working primarily with the defensive tackles.

Over the past three years, Dove was part of a Gamecock defensive staff that saw their unit produce a combined 63 turnovers to tie for 20th in the nation and rank third in the SEC. He aided in the development of four NFL players, including draft picks Zacch Pickens (2023 3rd round by Chicago), TJ Sanders (2025 2nd round by Buffalo) and Tonka Hemingway (2025 4th round by Las Vegas).

This past season, Dove tutored a USC defensive tackle unit that ranked first in the SEC and fourth in Power 4 in tackles (according to Pro Football Focus), while they were third in the conference and 11th in the Power 4 in tackles for loss.

In 2024, the Gamecocks earned a 9-4 record and a trip to the Citrus Bowl as they finished No. 19 in the Associated Press Top 25. Dove was part of a defensive staff that ranked first nationally in fourth down defense (30.4%), while USC ranked 12th in scoring defense (18.1 points allowed per game), 16th in total defense (316.6 yards allowed per game) and 18th in rushing defense (112.2 yards allowed per game).

Dove, who began working at South Carolina as a student intern in the equipment room, earned his bachelor's degree in sport and entertainment management from South Carolina in 2023.

Assistant Coach
Outside Linebackers
Appalachian State, 2013

kstatesports.com/CoachMason
@CoachPMason

Preston Mason is in his first season at Kansas State in 2026 coaching the outside linebackers. He came to Manhattan after spending the previous two seasons at Texas A&M, while he has also worked at North Carolina, Texas State and Gardner-Webb.

While in College Station, Mason helped Texas A&M to an 11-2 record and a trip to the College Football Playoff. The Aggies led the nation in third down defense (22.9%), while they ranked second in sacks (3.31 per game) and tackles for loss (8.5 per game), eighth in first down defense (205), 16th in passing yards allowed (177.6 per game), 18th in total defense (307.4 per game) and 19th in fourth down defense (41.2%). Mason assisted coaching the Texas A&M linebackers, which included the team leader in tackles in Taurean York, who earned All-SEC Third Team honors.

In 2024, Mason was part of an Aggie staff that helped produce an 8-5 record – including a program-best 5-0 start to SEC play – and an appearance in the Las Vegas Bowl. York again led the Aggies in tackles with 82.

Prior to working at Texas A&M, Mason was a defense analyst at North Carolina for the 2019, 2020 and 2021 seasons, helping the Tar Heels earn third-consecutive bowl berths.

Mason went to North Carolina after three seasons at Texas State, serving as the outside linebackers coach in 2018 after coaching the safeties in 2017. Mason also was a graduate assistant coach with the Bobcats in 2016 and worked with the secondary.

While at Texas State, the Bobcats saw marked improvement on defense. After inheriting one of the worse defenses in the nation in 2015, the 2018 Texas State made significant jumps in scoring defense (+31 spots), takeaways (+48), total defense (+49), yards per play (+57) and pass defense (+87).

Prior to Texas State, Mason made two different stops at Gardner-Webb – as a graduate assistant coaching cornerbacks in 2015 and as a defense intern in 2013. While at Gardner-Webb, the Bulldogs posted the best defense in the history of the Big South and were one of the best defenses in the FCS. During his time on staff, Gardner-Webb held 13 different opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing.

Between his stints at Gardner-Webb, Mason spent the 2014 season at Burns High School, while he also worked at Eastern Alamance High School (2022) and Seaforth High School (2023), each of which is in North Carolina.

Mason attended Appalachian State from 2009 to 2013, spending the 2009 season as a video assistant before serving as a defensive student assistant for the 2010, 2011 and 2012 campaigns.

A native of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, Mason earned his bachelor's degree in history and social studies education from Appalachian State in 2013. He and his wife, Marcie, have two sons, Jackson and Grady.

@CoachKardulis

Matt Kardulis is in his sixth season at K-State in 2026 and second as the Wildcats' assistant safeties coach. He spent his first four seasons on staff as a defensive quality control coach and assistant director of recruiting.

During his time in Manhattan, Kardulis has helped K-State average 22.7 points allowed per game over the last five seasons – a span of 65 games – to rank 29th nationally, 20th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 programs. Additionally, K-State has forced 105 turnovers during that time to tie for 14th nationally, eighth in the Power 4 and first in the conference.

In 2025, Kardulis was part of a defensive staff that saw the Wildcats rank third nationally in fumble recoveries (13), seventh in turnovers gained (26), 10th in defensive touchdowns (3) and 29th in pass efficiency defense (119.28). Kardulis aided in the development of safety VJ Payne, who earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades to close out his career.

Kardulis helped K-State finish in the top 30 nationally in three categories in 2024, ranking fourth in fourth down defense (32.1%), 25th in sacks per game (2.69) and 28th in rushing yards allowed (118.7). The Wildcats' rushing defense ranking and mark was the program's best since 2007. The 2024 Wildcats finished with a 9-4 record, the third-straight season with at least nine victories.

The 2023 season saw Kardulis aid in K-State finishing the season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight categories. The Wildcats allowed touchdowns on only 39.4% of opponents' red-zone trips, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Kardulis helped the Wildcats win a Big 12 Championship in 2022 as they ranked in the top 30 nationally in five categories. One of those was a No. 18 showing in fourth down defense (39.4%), which included a key 4th and Goal stop in overtime of the Big 12 Championship.

In 2021, Kardulis helped the Wildcats pick up a victory in the Texas Bowl, one that capped a great turnaround by the K-State defense. During the 2021 campaign, the Wildcats allowed just 21.0 points per game to stand as their best mark since 2003 and result in a 12.2-point decrease from the previous season.

Kardulis came to Manhattan after spending the previous two seasons on staff at Virginia Tech as a defensive graduate assistant, helping the Hokies reach the Belk Bowl in 2019.

Kardulis was a defensive quality control coach at Campbell after spending the 2017 season at his alma mater, Emory & Henry College, as a video coordinator and running backs coach. His coaching career began in 2016 at Frostburg State as a defensive graduate assistant.

Kardulis played defensive back for five years at Emory & Henry College in Emory, Virginia, and he graduated from the school in December 2015 with a degree in mathematics. He also obtained his master's in education from the college the following May. He and his wife, Brooke, have one daughter, Grace.

A former K-State offensive lineman, Drew Liddle enters his ninth season on staff at Kansas State in 2026 and second as the program's assistant offensive line coach. Liddle is in his second stint on the Wildcat coaching staff as he returned to Manhattan in 2024 as an offensive analyst.

In 2025, Liddle helped K-State rank 10th nationally by allowing 1.08 sacks per game, while the offensive line paved the way for 5.09 yards per carry to rank fifth in school history and 23rd in the country. The Wildcats broke a 71-year school record when they rushed for 472 yards at Utah and blocked for Joe Jackson's school-record 293 rushing yards against the Utes. The 2025 season saw center Sam Hecht pick up All-Big 12 First Team honors in addition to receiving votes for the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year award before being selected in the 2026 NFL Draft by Carolina. Also, John Pastore earned All-Big 12 Second Team accolades.

Liddle helped K-State finish in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories in 2024, including rushing yards per carry (second; 6.08), sacks allowed per game (10th; 1.00), rushing yards per game (11th; 215.5) and tackles for loss allowed per game (12th; 3.92). The Wildcats' ranking in sacks allowed was their highest since at least 2003 and best mark since 2000 (0.69), while it was their highest ranking in tackles for loss allowed since 2008 (eighth) and best mark since at least 1999.

The 2024 Wildcats also ranked in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories, including records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08), as well as a No. 6 ranking in rushing yards (2,801).

Liddle worked the previous two seasons as the tight ends/fullbacks coach at UTEP. During the 2022 season, he saw Trent Thompson record nine receptions for 203 yards and a pair of scores to lead all UTEP tight ends, while he tutored James Tupou, who excelled from the fullback position by hauling in 12 receptions for 152 yards and two touchdowns.

Liddle went to UTEP after working as the offensive line coach at Abilene Christian in 2021. Under Liddle's guidance, the ACU offensive line ranked No. 19 nationally in fewest sacks allowed per game (1.27) in addition to a No. 35 national ranking in rushing offense (164.2 yards per game).

In his first stint in Manhattan, Liddle worked as an Offensive Graduate Assistant in 2015 and 2016 before serving as an Offensive Quality Control Coach and Assistant Director of Recruiting for the 2017 through 2020 seasons. Over those six years, the Wildcats totaled four bowl appearances.

Liddle played in 26 career games over the 2011 through 2014 seasons as the Wildcats accumulated a 38-14 record with a Big 12 Championship in 2012, while they advanced to four bowl games.

A native of Oak Grove, Missouri, Liddle earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Kansas State in 2014, while he obtained his MBA in 2017. He is married to the former Kelli Krier, and the couple has one daughter, Scotti Jo.

@Coach_ScottyO

A former five-year staffer at Kansas State who has worked for five different FBS programs over his 19 years, Scotty Ohara returns to Manhattan in 2026 and will serve as the program's assistant running backs coach.

Ohara originally came to K-State to work as an offensive graduate assistant from 2012 through 2014 before spending the next two seasons as an assistant director of recruiting and offensive assistant. Beginning his career as an undergraduate assistant coach at Arizona, Ohara has also worked as an offensive assistant at Rutgers (2017), in various roles – including offensive coordinator during his final year – at UTEP (2018-23) and as an offensive quality control coach at Texas A&M (2024-25).

During his two seasons in College Station, Ohara helped Texas A&M to a combined 19-7 record, which culminated with an 11-2 record and a berth into the College Football Playoff in 2025. The Aggies ranked in the top 30 nationally in scoring offense (20th; 33.8 points per game), total offense (23rd; 444.5 yards per game), tackles for loss allowed (3rd; 3.31 per game), fourth down percentage (9th; 70.6%), passing yards per completion (14th; 13.62), time of possession (16th; 32:30) and first downs (26th; 293). Additionally, Texas A&M hit the 400-yard mark in total offense 10 times in 2025.

In his first season at Texas A&M in 2024, Ohara helped the Aggies earn a 5-0 start in SEC play, while they boasted the No. 2 rushing offense in the SEC.

Ohara spent the previous six years at UTEP working with the wide receivers while also being named the passing game coordinator in 2021 and offensive coordinator in 2023.

During his final season in El Paso, Ohara oversaw Kelly Akharaiyi earning All-Conference USA First Team honors after producing 1,033 yards and seven touchdowns. It was the third-straight season that UTEP had a 1,000-yard receiver after not producing consecutive seasons with Miners hitting that mark in program history. He went to UTEP after spending the 2017 season at Rutgers as an offensive quality control assistant, working primarily with the quarterbacks.

During his first stint in Manhattan from 2011 through 2016, Ohara helped the Wildcats produce a combined 53-25 record with six bowl appearances and a 2012 Big 12 Championship. He worked with the K-State running backs and tight ends in 2015 and 2016, while he was a graduate assistant from 2012 through 2014.

Ohara joined K-State from Menlo College in Atherton, California, where he was the wide receivers coach for two years (2009-10). Ohara got his start in coaching by spending three years as a volunteer student assistant at Arizona.

A native of San Jose, California, Ohara prepped at Pioneer High School before playing one year in college at Chapman University in Orange, California. He graduated from Arizona in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in molecular and cellular biology. He received his master's degree in academic advising from Kansas State in 2015. He and his wife, Laura, have two sons, Stanley Jr. and Luca.

Kansas State, 1999

kstatesports.com/CoachClements
@joebobclements

A four-year letterwinner for the Wildcats and 11-year Kansas State staff member, Joe Bob Clements returns to Manhattan for the 2026 season as assistant to the head coach/forward scout for offense.

Clements, who has coached the defensive line and linebackers during his 23-year coaching career, most recently served 12 seasons on the Oklahoma State staff from 2013 through 2024. He originally went to Stillwater as the defensive line coach (2013-21) before moving to linebackers (2022) and adding the title of co-defensive coordinator (2023-24).

During Clements' 16 combined years as a player, staffer and full-time assistant coach at K-State, the Wildcats won two Big 12 championships, four Big 12 North championships, while they won 10 or more games in a season nine times.

Serving as the defensive run game coordinator and defensive ends coach in 2012, Clements helped the Wildcats win the Big 12 title thanks in part to the defensive unit leading the conference in scoring defense, ranking second in rushing defense, turnovers gained and sacks, and third in both total defense and pass efficiency defense. One of Clements' defensive ends, Meshak Williams, earned Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year honors after leading the Big 12 in sacks. Another end, Adam Davis, was an All-Big 12 Second Team honoree who led the league with four forced fumbles.

In 2011, Clements helped Williams and Davis earn All-Big 12 honors. That duo, along with former walk-on Jordan Voelker, combined for 91 total tackles, 23.5 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks.

Clements tutored All-Big 12 defensive end Jeffrey Fitzgerald in 2009 and helped a Wildcat defense improve from 117th nationally in 2008 to No. 39 in total defense.

During his 12-year run at Oklahoma State, Clements helped the Cowboys earn a combined 102-53 record, which included six seasons with at least 10 wins, 11 bowl appearances and a trip to the 2023 Big 12 Championship Game.

Clements broke into coaching as a student assistant at K-State in 1999, was elevated to a graduate assistant post with the Wildcats in 2001. He earned his first full-time coaching position when he worked as the Wildcats' defensive ends coach from 2003 through 2005 before working at San Diego State (2006-07) and Kansas (2008).

Clements played defensive end at K-State from 1994 through 1998, earning All-Big 12 accolades as a senior. He was a member of five bowl teams with the Wildcats, highlighted by trips to the Cotton and Fiesta Bowls.

Clements graduated from Kansas State in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, while he added a master's degree in counseling (student development) from Kansas State in 2009. He and his wife, Pelusa, have four children, Orianna, Chance, Emma and Kaden. Chance is a linebacker at Emporia State.

A native of Charlotte, North Carolina, Emmanuel started 52 total games over his collegiate career at Charlotte and Florida State, including all 27 games over his two seasons for the Seminoles. He helped FSU produce a 23-4 record while leading the ACC in scoring offense both seasons. He earned All-ACC First Team honors and was selected an All-American by Phil Steele during his senior season of 2023 while playing both left and right guard.

A two-time ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week honoree, Emmanuel helped Florida State win an ACC Championship behind an undefeated regular season. The Seminoles led the conference in scoring offense, total touchdowns, rushing touchdowns, yards per completion, fewest interceptions thrown and fewest turnovers. Emmanuel helped protect ACC Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Player of the Year Jordan Travis, who led the conference in passing efficiency, yards per pass attempt and fewest interceptions while finishing fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

In 2022, Emmanuel helped block for an offense that led the nation with an average of 7.46 plays per game of at least 20 yards and tied for the national lead with eight touchdown drives of at least 90 yards. The Seminoles were one of two teams in the country that averaged at least 270 passing yards and 210 rushing yards per game that season.

Emmanuel began his playing career at Charlotte, starting 25 total games from 2019 through 2021, earning all-conference honors on two occasions.

Emmanuel earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Charlotte in 2022, while he completed a bachelor's degree in social science and interdisciplinary studies from Florida State in 2023.

Andrew Fowler is in his first season as the Special Teams Quality Control Coach at Kansas State in 2026.

Fowler comes to Manhattan after spending the last two years in the same capacity at Toledo, working alongside current K-State Special Teams Coordinator Stanton Weber. In his role with the Rockets, Fowler helped Toledo win eight games each of the last two years with a pair of bowl appearances. This past season, Toledo led the nation with five total blocked kicks, while the Rockets were fifth in blocked punts (3), 19th in punt-return defense (4.22) and 34th in punt returns (11.48).

He assisted with the development of four All-MAC honorees as kickoff returner Trayvon Rudolph (second team) and punt returner Bryson Hammer (third team) earned the nod in 2025, while kickoff return Jacquez Stuart and punt returner Bryson Hammer each recorded second-team honors in 2024. Additionally, the 2024 season saw James Roe earn Freshman All-America honors.

Fowler originally entered the coaching profession as a special teams assistant at South Carolina during the 2022 season, a year in which the Gamecocks defeated five ranked opponents en route to an eight-win season and an appearance in the Gator Bowl. That season, South Carolina recorded a school-record five blocked punts, while punter Kai Kroeger earned All-America honors and long snapper Hunter Rogers was an All-SEC performer.

A native of Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey, Fowler played baseball for four seasons at Neumann University, a Division III school in Ashton, Pennsylvania, as he was a four-time academic all-conference honoree. He obtained his undergraduate degree in sport management with a minor in business administration and marketing from Neumann in 2021 and a master's degree in sports and entertainment management from South Carolina in 2022.

Hayden Gibson is in his second season at K-State in 2026, serving as a defensive assistant.

During his first season in Manhattan in 2025, Gibson helped the Wildcat defense rank third nationally in fumble recoveries (13), seventh in turnovers gained (26), 10th in defensive touchdowns (3) and 29th in pass efficiency defense (119.28).

Gibson came to Manhattan after serving five seasons on the staff at his alma mater, Dickinson State, in Dickinson, North Dakota. While with the Blue Hawks, Gibson served as the running backs coach (2020-21) and wide receivers coach (2022-24), while he held the title of passing game coordinator during his final season.

While on staff at Dickinson State, Gibson helped the Blue Hawks secure five-straight conference championships, and he developed three all-conference running backs and saw his wide receivers combine for five all-conference honors. One of those wide receivers, Noah Sickler, was named the Offensive Player of the Year in 2024.

A native of Bismarck, North Dakota, Gibson was a four-year starting quarterback and three-year team captain for the Blue Hawks, helping Dickinson State win a conference championship each year. He broke the career and single-season school records for passing yards, passing touchdowns and total yards. As a senior, Gibson earned national player of the week honors after throwing for 524 yards in a single game.

Gibson received his bachelor's degree in physical education and a minor in coaching from Dickinson State in 2020, while he obtained a master's degree in education with a focus in educational athletic leadership in 2022.

Armani Linton is in his first season at K-State in 2026 as a defensive analyst. He came to Manhattan after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant defensive backs/nickelbacks coach at Arkansas.

During his first year at Arkansas, Linton helped the Razorbacks open the season with their first shutout in six years in addition to collecting road victories at Auburn and Mississippi State. Against the Tigers, Linton helped tutor a secondary that picked off four passes and break up six others, while they tallied a pair of interceptions against the Bulldogs.

A 2022 YBC Rising Coaches honoree, Linton was a defensive graduate assistant working with the defensive backs at Jacksonville State in 2023, helping the Gamecocks to their first bowl appearance and victory in school history. That season, JSU hauled in 16 interceptions to tie for 10th in the nation, and he assisted in the development of cornerback Derek Carter, who earned All-Conference USA Second Team honors.

Linton coached at East Mississippi Community College during the 2022 season as he was originally hired as an assistant safeties coach before being promoted to a full-time role coaching the wide receivers. At EMCC, Linton helped the Lions to a No. 5 final ranking, the No. 3 scoring offense (36.4 points per game), a top-five ranking in nearly every offensive category and a MACCC State Championship win in 2022. That came after he began his coaching career at Lafayette High School in Oxford, Mississippi, coaching the defensive backs, in 2021.

A native of Walnut, Mississippi, Linton played safety and running back at Ole Miss. He earned his undergraduate degree in sport and recreation administration from Mississippi in 2019, while he obtained a master's degree in adult and lifelong learning from Arkansas in 2025.

Alex Wallace is in his first season as an offensive assistant at K-State in 2026. He spent the previous three seasons as an offensive graduate for the Wildcats, working with the wide receivers and quarterbacks.

During his first as an offensive graduate assistant, Wallace helped K-State rank in the top 10 in school history in 32 game or season categories in 2023. Among those was a school-record 30 passing touchdowns, No. 2 rankings in offensive yards per game (445.2) and first downs (310), and No. 3 showings in total yards (5,788), completions (258) and pass attempts (426).

It was more of the same in 2024 as K-State finished in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories and ranked in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories, the latter featuring school records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08). Additionally, the Wildcats tied for third in school history in passing touchdowns (25), ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in both passing yards (2,749) and pass attempts (383).

Prior to his time as a graduate assistant, Wallace spent the previous two seasons working as an undergraduate coach at K-State. His gameday responsibilities included signaling offensive play calls and charting plays, while he assisted with individual drills and organized the scout team during practices. On a daily basis, Wallace helped generate practice scripts, created quarterback wristbands and helped with opponent breakdown among other duties.

The son of Spencer and Sondra Wallace, he was a three-year football letterwinner and two-year team captain at Olathe South High School prior to arriving in Manhattan. Wallace earned his undergraduate degree in education studies from K-State in May 2023. He and his wife, Sandy, reside in Manhattan.

Game Notes

• This was the 109th all-time meeting between K-State and Iowa State, each coming in consecutive seasons as this is the eighth-longest active uninterrupted series in FBS history... It was the second time this century that there was a ranked matchup on opening day (2009 – No. 14 Boise State vs. No. 16 Oregon) and the first time two Big 12 teams met in Week 0/1 since Nebraska faced Oklahoma State in 2003.

• Kansas State and Iowa State played to yet another one-score game... It was the 14th one-score game between the two teams dating back to 2008, the most in any series in the country... Each of the last four games in the series have been decided by one score.

• Junior Avery Johnson posted a pass efficiency rating of 168.4, which was the second-highest of his career (min. 10 attempts)... His career best is 186.0 last year at West Virginia... His 273 passing yards were the second most of his career, just behind the 298 yards he put up last year at West Virginia... He has now thrown for multiple touchdowns in four-straight games dating back to last season... K-State is now 6-1 all-time when Johnson passes and rushes for a touchdown.

• Junior defensive end Tobi Osunsanmi finished the game with a career-high 2.0 sacks... His previous best was 1.5 sacks in last year's season opener against UT Martin... It was the most sacks by a Wildcat since Brendan Mott had 2.5 last year at Colorado... As a team, K-State had 4.0 tackles, its most since carding four in last year's Cincinnati game.

K-STATE FALLS TO IOWA STATE IN DUBLIN

DUBLIN, Ireland – They call the Aer Lingus College Football Classic "Much More Than a Game," and this fifth edition of the classic lived up to that billing, as the 2025 college football season got underway under the lights of Aviva Stadium. In a game that featured two ranked teams and longtime arch-rivals, No. 17 Kansas State and No. 22 Iowa State slugged it out in old-school style in the rain before the Cyclones finally outlasted the Wildcats, 24-21, to get a quick jump on the 2025 season.

The game that was announced 486 days ago and pitted the Wildcats against the Cyclones for the 109th time in the eighth-longest active uninterrupted series in FBS history carried a Big 12 feel with purple filling one side of the stadium and red filling the other.

Both teams reportedly sold 11,000 tickets, but the crowd was much larger, as the teams played before a sellout crowd of 47,221. The K-State marching band, which endured significant travel challenges to make it more than 4,000 miles for kickoff, was in midseason form at an overseas venue that served as a home game for the Wildcats and brimmed with purple furnishing, thousands of purple Powercat flags, and highlight upon highlight upon the videoboards.

In the end, though, Iowa State, 1-0 overall and 1-0 in the Big 12, made more plays to capture its third straight victory over K-State, 0-1 and 0-1 in the Big 12, in a series that dates to 1917.

From beginning to end, this game was excruciatingly close — on brand with previous clashes between these two programs. The teams have played 14 one-score games since 2008, the most in any series in the country. Each of the last four games in the series have been decided by one score. It wasn't until the final possession by Iowa State that this back-and-forth game reached its conclusion.

Johnson rocketed a deep ball to new wide receiver Jerand Bradley for a 65-yard catch-and-run down the Iowa State sideline, as Bradley outran three defenders for his first K-State touchdown. K-State trailed, 24-21, with 6:23 left in the fourth quarter, and still had a chance.

But Iowa State dug in and drained the clock behind a punishing second-half rushing game that gashed the Wildcats. K-State needed a stop. K-State needed the football. But K-State couldn't get the stop it needed for its offense to gain possession. After an Iowa State timeout on fourth-and-3 at the K-State 16-yard line, Iowa State quarterback Rocco Becht completed a pass to running back Carson Hansen and let him take care of the rest, as he rumbled and twisted on a 15-yard catch-and-run to the 1-yard line just before the 2-minute timeout.

From there, the Cyclones downed the ball three times inside the 3-yard line until the game clock expired.

After the teams slugged through the rain in the first half, the conditions proved more favorable over the final two quarters. Johnson completed 21-of-30 passes for 273 yards and two touchdowns, and Becht went 14-of-28 for 183 yards and two touchdowns. Both quarterbacks, who can run, were limited by field conditions. Becht had 12 carries for 18 yards and one touchdown, and Johnson had eight carries for 21 yards and one score.

A promising sign for K-State? It's passing game. Jayce Brown had four catches for 78 yards and one touchdown, Bradley had three catches for 75 yards and one touchdown, tight end Garrett Oakley had five catches for 65 yards, and Jaron Tibbs had four catches for 35 yards.

Game Notes

• This marked the fifth come-from-behind victory since the beginning of 2024 when trailing in the fourth quarter... It was K-State's first game-winning touchdown with under 1:00 left in regulation since Skylar Thompson connected with Isaiah Zuber on the final play in a home game against Iowa State in 2017.

• Kansas State totaled 461 offensive yards on Saturday... It was the 34th time in the last 41 games dating back to the beginning of the 2022 season that the Wildcats have totaled at least 375 yards... K-State is 27-7 when totaling at least 375 offensive yards since 2022.

• Avery Johnson went 28-of-43 through the air for 318 yards and three touchdowns, while he rushed for 43 yards, including a crucial 25-yard run on the game-winning drive... He set career highs in completions (prev: 24 vs. Arizona State in 2024), attempts (40 vs. Arizona State in 2024) and yards (298 vs. West Virginia in 2024), while he tied his career high in touchdown passes (four times)... It was the 46th 300-yard passing game in school history and the first since Will Howard had 327 yards at Texas in 2023.

• Jayce Brown hauled in a career-high 12 receptions for 109 yards and a touchdown... His previous career high in receptions was six last season at Colorado... His 12 receptions were the most by a Wildcat since Tyler Lockett had 13 in the final game of his career, the 2014 Alamo Bowl against UCLA... He now has a catch in each of the last 23 games dating back to the 2023 Texas Tech contests... It was the third 100-yard receiving game in his career, the other two coming last year at Colorado (121 yards) and Iowa State (106 yards).

LATE TD LIFTS K-STATE PAST NORTH DAKOTA

MANHATTAN, Kan. – No. 17 Kansas State found a way.

Avery Johnson engineered an 81-yard drive and threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to running back Joe Jackson with 42 seconds remaining, and the Wildcats held off first-time starting quarterback Jerry Kaminski and North Dakota for a 38-35 nail-biting victory Saturday at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State led 31-21 late in the third quarter before North Dakota scored two touchdowns, including a 20-yard run by Sawyer Seidl that gave the Fighting Hawks a 35-31 edge with 4:19 left in the fourth quarter, leaving the sellout crowd of 51,927 in stunned silence while North Dakota first-year head coach Eric Schmidt applauded his players' effort from the sideline.

But Johnson and the Wildcats avoided disaster in their first-ever meeting against North Dakota and prevented the FCS member from pulling off perhaps its biggest win in history.

The back-and-forth slugfest ended with K-State staging its fifth come-from-behind victory since the beginning of the 2024 season when trailing in the fourth quarter. This one marked the Wildcats' first game-winning touchdown with under 1:00 left in regulation since Skylar Thompson connected with Isaiah Zuber on the final play in a home game against Iowa State in 2017.

Johnson had career highs across the board as a passer, completing 28-of-43 passes for 318 yards and three touchdowns, while he rushed for 43 yards, including a crucial 25-yard run on the game-winning drive.

In the second game of his second season as a full-time starter, Johnson showed something to Klieman in the game-winning drive.

After K-State's final touchdown, North Dakota took over with 37 seconds to go, and the crowd rose to peak level, and a K-State defense that had its hands full with the Fighting Hawks all game forced Kaminski to throw four straight incompletions, including a deep ball that glanced off the hands of Caden Dennis down the sideline with 5 seconds left, as the Wildcats survived a rollercoaster night.

K-State outgained North Dakota, 461 to 354, in total offense and held the Fighting Hawks to just 5-of-14 on third downs and 1-of-2 on fourth downs. K-State improved to 27-7 when totaling at least 375 offensive yards since 2022.

K-State wide receiver Jayce Brown had a career-high 12 catches for 109 yards and a touchdown, marking the most receptions by a K-State player since Tyler Lockett had 13 in the final game of his career, the 2014 Alamo Bowl. Jerand Bradley had five catches for 46 yards and Jaron Tibbs had three catches for 55 yards and a touchdown.

However, the third quarter saw sophomore running back DeVon Rice rise to the occasion with a pair of touchdowns of nine and 13 yards. Seeing significant action in place of the injured Dylan Edwards, Rice had seven carries for 40 yards and two touchdowns, and Joe Jackson had 11 carries for 55 yards.

Meanwhile, Jackson's lone catch in the game made everybody happy. Jackson caught the game-winning pass from Johnson along the edge to the right side inside the 10-yard line, turned up field and stepped into the end zone, then dropped the ball and flexed in excitement.

K-State got it done in the clutch. K-State found a way.

Game Notes

• This was the third all-time meeting between Kansas State and Army with the Black Knights now holding a 3-0 advantage in the series... K-State is now 3-4 all-time against service academy teams... Kansas State is now 102-21 in regular-season non-conference games since 1990, which includes an 85-10 mark at home... The Wildcats are 25-19-1 all-time against current members of the American.

• Junior Avery Johnson made his 17th-career start at quarterback, going 15-of-25 through the air for 172 yards and a touchdown... He now has 318 career completions to rank 10th in school history as he passed Ell Roberson (307 – 2000-03)... He now has 36 career touchdown passes to tie Michael Bishop (1997-98) for sixth place in school history.

• Junior wide receiver Jayce Brown recorded three receptions for 29 yards... He now has a catch in each of the last 24 games dating back to the 2023 Texas Tech contest... It is the longest streak by a Wildcat since Phillip Brooks had a 25-game streak over the 2022 and 2023 seasons.

• Redshirt freshman Bryce Noernberg returned a third-quarter kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown... It was the K-State's first kickoff-return touchdown since Malik Knowles took one 93 yards for a touchdown against Oklahoma in 2021... It was the longest by a Wildcat since Knowles went 99 yards earlier in the 2021 season at Oklahoma State.

ARMY GRINDS OUT 24-21 VICTORY OVER K-STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State hoped its lengthy preparation for Army paid dividends. All that quarterback Avery Johnson and the Wildcats offense could do, though, was watch almost the entire second half from the sideline as the Black Knights ran, ran, and ran some more — and scored. It all ended with a forgettable 24-21 loss in front of a sellout crowd at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State took a 13-7 lead into halftime following a balanced first two quarters between the teams. K-State led in total offense, 198 to 140, and in time of possession — 16:15 to 13:45. Then Army started its march. And it simply wouldn't be stopped.

Incredibly, K-State possessed the football for fewer than four minutes in the second half. The Wildcats ran four offensive plays from scrimmage before their final fourth-quarter drive. In actual time, the K-State offense didn't see the field for almost an hour.

Army quarterback Cale Hellums and slotback Noah Short guided drive after drive. They put together drives of 14, 13 and 14 plays that consumed more than seven minutes apiece and produced two touchdowns and a field goal in the second half.

K-State saw its halftime lead dissolve as Army efficiently ran the ball down the field with three- and four-yard gains. And the clock continued to dwindle.

K-State surrendered its lead for good the final time that the noticeably worn-down defense was on the field. Facing second-and-4 at the K-State 14-yard line, Hellums got good blocking from the right side of the line, skated through a hole up the middle with only an arm touching along the way, and celebrated with his teammates in the end zone to take the 24-21 lead, capping a monster 14-play, 56-yard drive and giving the Wildcats just 2:52 left to pull off a comeback.

Johnson completed 15-of-25 passes for 172 yards and one touchdown and one interception. His first pick of the season arrived when a ball deflected off running back Joe Jackson and into the hands of Collin Matteson near midfield with 1:35 left.

The Black Knights ran three plays to run out the final 95 seconds and secure their third win all-time against the Wildcats.

Army outgained K-State, 332 to 247, as the Black Knights put up 237 rushing yards, went 10-for-22 on third downs, and 6-for-7 on fourth downs. Army held the ball twice as long as K-State — 40:44 to 19:16. K-State recorded its lowest time of possession in a game since holding the ball for 18:34 at Louisville in 2008.

Total plays? Army ran 82, K-State ran 43. It marked the fewest plays by K-State in a game since it ran 41 plays against Navy in the 2019 Liberty Bowl.

It marked the third-straight close game to start the season for K-State, which suffered a 24-21 loss to Iowa State in Ireland and needed a game-winning touchdown to escape North Dakota, 38-35.

Game Notes

• This was the ninth all-time meeting between Kansas State and Arizona with UofA now holding a 6-2-1 advantage in the series... K-State has dropped its last three Friday road games, losing at Stanford in 2016 and at Texas in 2021.

• Sophomore Garrett Harstad blocked a punt in the third quarter, which eventually led to a K-State touchdown... It was K-State's first blocked punt since Ty Bowman had one in last year's season opener against UT Martin... The Wildcats have now blocked a punt in each of the last eight years, which currently stands at the longest streak in the nation... San Diego State entered the 2025 season tied with K-State by blocking a punt in each of the last seven years.

• Jayce Brown recorded six receptions for 68 yards, extending his catch streak to 25 games... He recorded a 75-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second half, the Wildcats' longest rush since Deuce Vaughn went 88 yards for a score in the 2022 Sugar Bowl... It was the longest rush by a K-State wide receiver since Malik Knowles went 75 yards for a score on the first play of the 2022 season against South Dakota.

• Simon McClannan averaged 50.8 yards on his five punts on Friday evening, a new career high... His previous best was a 46.5-yard average on four punts last year against Rutgers in the Rate Bowl... It was the first time a K-State punter averaged more than 50 yards per punt on at least four punts since Ty Zentner had a 54.3-yard average against Missouri in 2022.

K-STATE FALLS TO ARIZONA, 23-17

TUCSON, Ariz. – Kansas State never found its groove, Arizona put together a powerful running attack, and K-State suffered a 23-17 loss in its first true road game of the season.

Playing at Arizona Stadium, the site of K-State's first-ever bowl victory in the 1993 Copper Bowl, K-State incurred a rash of troubles in the final game before its first bye week.

K-State experienced difficulties from the start, while Arizona moved the ball. Arizona outgained K-State 412 to 193 and went 8-of-18 on third down behind a solid performance from quarterback Noah Fifita, who completed 16-of-33 passes for 178 yards and rushed 15 times for 48 yards and two touchdowns. Ismail Mahdi had 22 carries for 189 yards on the ground.

Avery Johnson completed 13-of-29 passes for 88 yards and had seven carries for minus-16 yards and one touchdown.

K-State's leading rusher was wide receiver Jayce Brown, whose 75-yard touchdown run out of the Wildcat formation down the right side on the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter gave K-State hope and drew the Wildcats to within 17-10. Brown had one carry for 75 yards and also led K-State with six catches for 68 yards.

Even after its troubles, K-State had a chance to win the game. K-State had fourth-and-7 from its 43-yard line, but Johnson saw his pass across the middle to Brown fall incomplete with 1:00 to go, effectively ending the game and extending the Wildcats' woes.

Arizona led 17-3 at halftime while outgaining K-State 257 to 44 in the first two quarters. K-State's lone score in the first half was a career-long 51-yard field goal by Luis Rodriguez with 7:42 left in the first quarter, which marked the first score by either team.

But Fifita scored touchdowns on runs of 15 and 2 yards, and Michael Salgado-Medina hit a 31-yard field goal, as Arizona had its way in the first two quarters. About the only thing that didn't go right for Arizona came when Salgado-Medina missed a 62-yard field goal to end the first half.

Faced with a halftime deficit, Brown and K-State seemingly sprang to life in the third quarter. On the first play from scrimmage, Brown took the football out of the Wildcat formation and dashed 75 yards down the right side for a touchdown to draw K-State to 17-10 just 13 seconds into the second half.

After K-State held Arizona to a three-and-out for the first time in the game, the K-State special teams came alive. Punter Salgado-Medina dropped a snap, and K-State's Garrett Harstad blocked a punt as K-State took over at the Arizona 13-yard line. It was the eighth-straight season the Wildcats have blocked a punt, the longest streak in the nation.

Johnson threaded the ball down the middle to Brown to the 1, and two plays later Johnson punched the ball into the end zone for a 17-17 tie.

Then Qua Moss leaped in front of Keyan Burnett to intercept a halfback pass from Javin Whatley, and K-State had a chance to take the lead. It marked the first K-State defensive interception this season and the first interception by the Arizona offense this season.

However, K-State went three-and-out and Arizona started its possession at the K-State 46 and drove for a Salgado-Medina 31-yard field goal and a 20-17 lead with 2:40 left in the third quarter.

On Arizona's next drive, Fifita methodically took Arizona down the field on a 7:30 drive before Damian Ilalio and Travis Bates sacked him and forced another Salgado-Medina 41-yard field goal. That gave Arizona a 23-17 lead with 4:25 to go.

K-State was unable to answer. Facing fourth-and-3 at the K-State 32-yard line, with 2:31 left, Johnson saw his pass fly off Brown's hands on a slant route, giving the ball back to Arizona.

Game Notes

• This was the third all-time meeting between Kansas State and UCF with the Wildcats now holding a 3-0 lead... It was the first time the Wildcats had a morning kickoff to almost exactly one year as they defeated Oklahoma State, 42-20, at home on September 27, 2024... The Wildcats have won each of their last four Big 12 home openers, defeating Texas Tech in 2022, UCF in 2023 and Oklahoma State last year prior this victory.

• Junior quarterback Avery Johnson threw for 168 yards and two touchdowns on 18-of-25 aim... With his two touchdown passes, Johnson now has 38 in his career as he moved into fifth place in school history, passing Ell Roberson (2000-03)... He now has 5,248 yards of total offense in his career, entering the school's top-10 list... His 72.0% completion mark was a new career high, bettering the 70.0% clip in the season opener against Iowa State (min. 10 attempts).

• Johnson rushed for a season-high 75 yards on Saturday... He now has 1,038 career rushing yards as he became the seventh quarterback in school history to reach the 1,000-yard mark.

• Running back Dylan Edwards rushed for a season-high 166 yards and a touchdown... It was the second-most yards of his career, behind a 196-yard output last year against Rutgers in the Rate Bowl... He had a 75-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, which was a career-long rush... His previous career long was a 65-yard touchdown in last year's Rate Bowl... It was the second-straight game the Wildcats had a 75-yard touchdown run as Jayce Brown had one at Arizona... It was the first time K-State had runs of at least 75 yards in consecutive games in school history.

BALANCED ATTACK LEADS TO WIN OVER UCF

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Avery Johnson passed for 168 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 75 rushing yards on 12 carries, and standout running back Dylan Edwards had 166 rushing yards and one score, as Kansas State put together its best performance of the season in a much-needed 34-20 win over UCF.

K-State took a 17-7 lead into the half and led 31-10 late in the third quarter after Edwards took a handoff and raced down the right sideline 75 yards for a touchdown, prompting a massive celebration among the crowd of 53,013 and coaches and players on the sideline for a K-State team that came off a bye week looking to rebound after a few tough losses.

K-State outgained UCF 434 to 402. The Wildcats had season highs both with 434 total yards and 266 rushing yards and were a perfect 4-for-4 inside the red zone. The K-State defense held the Knights' offense to 3-for-13 on third downs, and it held a squad that led the FBS in fourth-down conversions without a single fourth-down conversion in the contest.

Tayven Jackson completed 12-of-24 passes for 115 yards and one interception, and Jacurri Brown completed 1-of-2 passes with one touchdown and one interception. Running back Myles Montgomery had 10 carries for 119 yards.

But K-State held UCF to 20 points after the Knights entered averaging 39.7 points per game. The Wildcats had some standout performances on defense, including two interceptions, eight tackles for loss and three sacks.

Johnson completed 18-of-25 passes for 168 yards and two touchdowns, and his 12 rushes for 75 yards were just what the doctor ordered in keeping the Knights defense honest. He was poised, calm, and picked his spots well in the running game.

Wide receiver Jaron Tibbs had eight catches for 72 yards, Garrett Oakley had two catches for 36 yards, and Sterling Lockett and Cure both had their first-career catches in a K-State uniform.

Leading 10-7 just before halftime, Johnson controlled the two-minute offense magnificently and his soft rainbow pass off play-action to sophomore tight end Will Anciaux all alone in the corner of the end zone gave K-State a 17-7 halftime lead. Edwards had four carries for 29 yards on the drive, Johnson ran when he needed to, and he found pass catchers across the field, with a 20-yard pass to Tibbs, and a 13-yard pass to Lockett, before his pass found Anciaux standing flat-footed, all alone, awaiting the catch.

K-State didn't let down in the second half, as Johnson opened the third quarter with a 6-play, 65-yard touchdown drive. Two plays after Johnson completed a 35-yard pass to tight end Garrett Oakley, Johnson hit Oakley with a short shovel pass in the end zone to make it 24-7.

Edwards took the first play from scrimmage 75 yards down the K-State sideline for the longest-touchdown run of his career to extend the lead to 31-10. Then UCF sprinted back, as Jaden Nixon rushed to the right for a 54-yard touchdown to make it 31-17.

Just when it looked like UCF could threaten to make it a one-score game, they killed their drive with four penalties and settled for a 40-yard field goal from Ruelas to make it 31-20 with 9:34 left in the fourth quarter.

All that was left was a spectacular interception by Qua Moss and a 48-yard field goal by Rodriguez late for the game's final points.

Game Notes

• This was the 22nd all-time meeting between Kansas State and Baylor with the Bears evening the series at 11-11... Baylor took a 7-5 advantage in the series in games played in Waco... K-State is now 11-19 in its Big 12 road opener since the league's inception in 1996.

• The Wildcats went 75 yards on their first drive, the first opening-drive touchdown of the season and first since last year's Cincinnati game on November 23... In its first drive of the second half, K-State went 97 yards for a touchdown... It tied for the 12th-longest drive in school history and was the longest since a 97-yard drive at Baylor in 2022.

• Avery Johnson threw for 344 yards and two touchdowns on 29-of-45 aim, while he rushed for 72 yards and another one score... His 29 completions were tied for the seventh most in a game in school history, while his 344 passing yards were the most by a Wildcat since Jake Waters had 400 yards at West Virginia in 2014... He now has 1,110 career rushing yards to rank fifth in school history among quarterbacks... He now has 40 career passing touchdowns to tie for fourth in school history.

• Garrett Oakley tallied seven receptions for 54 yards and a touchdown... His seven receptions were a new career high, bettering the four he had two games ago at Arizona and in last year's regular-season finale at Iowa State... It was the most receptions in a game by a tight end since Ben Sinnott had 10 catches in the 2023 regular-season finale against Iowa State... Oakley now has 54 career receptions to rank fifth in school history by a tight end, passing Kent Dean (1984-87), who had 50.

LATE FIELD GOAL LIFTS BAYLOR PAST K-STATE

WACO, Texas – Kansas State saw Baylor's Caden Jenkins block a 56-yard field goal attempt by Luis Rodriguez with 5 seconds remaining, and the Wildcats suffered another narrow loss with a 35-34 defeat at McLane Stadium.

Avery Johnson completed 29-of-45 passes for 344 yards and two touchdowns and one interception, and he added 10 carries for 72 yards and one score, but his standout performance was overshadowed by a valiant comeback from Baylor, which stormed back from a 31-17 deficit to take the lead on a Connor Hawkins 53-yard field goal with 31 seconds left, ultimately giving the Wildcats their forth one-score loss in a frustrating season.

Baylor's comeback was keyed by one of the rare mistakes of the game by Johnson, whose pass up the middle to wide receiver Jaron Tibbs was intercepted by Jacob Redding, and his 66-yard return gave the Bears a 32-31 lead with 4:28 left in the fourth quarter.

On the ensuing drive, the Wildcats were unable to get the ball into the end zone inside the 10 and used a 22-yard field goal to take a 34-32 lead.

The Bears weren't finished. Sawyer Robertson, who entered the game leading the FBS in passer rating, passing yards and touchdown passes, completed 25-of-39 passes for 345 yards with two touchdowns and one interception, and he drove the Bears for Hawkins' decisive 53-yard field goal, which proved to be enough to keep the Wildcats winless on the road.

Although Baylor entered with the 11th-ranked offense in the FBS, the Wildcats outgained the Bears 501-443 in total offensive yards, forced three turnovers, and held the Bears to just 3-of-9 on third downs and 0-1 on fourth downs. K-State also led in time of possession 37:47 to 22:13. Johnson's 344 passing yards were the most by a K-State quarterback since Jake Waters had 400 at West Virginia in 2014.

The game featured standout performances by Wildat pass catchers from both teams as wide receiver Jayce Brown had four catches for 106 yards and one touchdown, and Tibbs had six catches for 80 yards, and tight end Garrett Oakley had a career-high seven catches for 54 yards and one touchdown.

K-State and Baylor were tied 17-17 at halftime. The Wildcats began their first drive of the second half at its own 3-yard line before converted on two third-and-shorts and one fourth-and-short to keep alive a possession that included a Brown 30-yard catch-and-run before he caught a 12-yard touchdown pass at the goal line for a 24-17 lead.

K-State then forced a three-and-out keyed by a 10-yard sack by Cody Stufflebean. Following a punt, the Wildcats regained possession at the Baylor 44-yard line, and Johnson found tight end Will Anciaux to give the Wildcats the ball at the 5. Dylan Edwards scored on the next play to make it 30-17.

Robertson and the Bears tried to answer as the game steered into the fourth quarter. But facing fourth-and-8 from the K-State 15-yard line, Robertson overthrew Kole Wilson in double coverage.

But moments later, Robertson came back and hit Trigg with a pair of long passes – first a 42-yard pass to take the Bears to the K-State 40, then a 29-yard completion that Trigg caught with one hand. Finally, Bryson Washington caught a swing pass at the 10 and broke tackles to get the ball inside the right pylon for a score. Robertson ran into the end zone for a 2-point conversion to cut K-State's lead to 31-25.

K-State had its eyes set on putting the game away with a touchdown as Johnson converted a 17-yard pass to Jackson on third-and-11 at the K-State 29. Facing third-and-9 at the K-State 48, Johnson hit Tibbs for 11 yards, but disaster struck on the next play when Johnson's pass was intercepted by Redding, whose pick six gave the Bears a 32-31 lead.

The K-State offense was ready come back when Johnson fired a deep ball to Brown, who raced down the field, but was ruled down at the Baylor 28 when his helmet was taken off. Caldra Williford, who took off Brown's helmet, was charged with a face-mask penalty, which gave K-State the ball at the Baylor 14. Three Jackson runs got the ball to the 4, but facing third-and-goal at the 4, Johnson's pass fell incomplete to lead to Rodriguez's 22-yard field goal for a 34-32 lead with 1:48 to go before Baylor answered with Hawkins' 53-yarder.

Game Notes

• This was the 19th all-time meeting between Kansas State and TCU with the Wildcats now holding an 11-8 advantage in the series, including a 7-3 mark in games played in Manhattan... K-State has won each of the last three matchups dating back to the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the longest streak by the Wildcats in the series.

• K-State had two defensive scores in the contest as Wesley Fair had a 15-yard fumble return touchdown and Des Purnell had a 25-yard interception return touchdown... It was the first time the Wildcats had a fumble-return touchdown and a pick-6 in the same game since the 2023 Baylor contest... In that game, Purnell had a 15-yard fumble-return touchdown and Keenan Garber had a 45-yard interception-return touchdown.

• Des Purnell recorded a 25-yard interception-return touchdown, which came just one play after he had an 8-yard sack... It was his second-career interception and the first he returned for a touchdown... It was K-State's first pick-6 since Marques Sigle returned a pick 43 yards for a score last year at West Virginia.

• Des Purnell had two interceptions in the contest as he had one in the fourth quarter along with his pick-6 in the third quarter... It was the first time a Wildcat had two interceptions in one game since Jacob Parrish had two at Texas in 2023... It was the first time a Wildcat linebacker had two interceptions in a game since Elijah Lee had two against TCU in 2015.

• Garrett Oakley had two touchdowns, giving him 11 for his career, which is a new school record by a tight end... The previous record of 10 was shared by Ben Sinnott and Henry Childs.

DEFENSE PACES K-STATE IN 41-28 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Avery Johnson threw three touchdowns, including two to tight end Garrett Oakley to reach a milestone, and an opportunistic Kansas State defense accounted for two touchdowns as well, as the Wildcats blew past TCU 41-28 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Playing without leading rusher Dylan Edwards and sack leader Tobi Osunsanmi, K-State showed it had more than enough talented bodies to get past TCU, which historically has had a tough time against the Wildcats. K-State has now won six of its last seven meetings and hasn't lost to the Horned Frogs in Manhattan since 2017. K-State beat TCU, 41-3, the last time the teams met on October 21, 2023.

This win was plenty big. After a chain of past heartbreaks for a team still busting with potential, the Wildcats cut it loose, scored their most points all season, and recorded a pair of defensive touchdowns in a single game for the first time in two years — a Wesley Fair 15-yard fumble recovery for a 14-7 lead, and a Des Purnell 25-yard interception return to make it 21-7 — en route to handing the Horned Frogs their most unpleasant defeat of the season.

Johnson completed 16-of-26 passes for 198 yards and three touchdowns, and grinded out 29 yards on the ground on 13 rushing attempts. He appeared sensational at times with a 32-yard touchdown pass to Oakley in the second quarter, a 17-yard touchdown pass to Oakley in third quarter, and a 12-yard touchdown pass to 6-foot-6 wide receiver Jerand Bradley in the back of the end zone in the fourth quarter. Oakley's 11 career touchdown catches are the most by a tight end in K-State history.

Meanwhile, there are some who maybe didn't believe what they were seeing — as Fair, and then Purnell darted into the end zone for defensive scores. Purnell had two interceptions, the first time a K-State linebacker had two in a game since Elijah Lee against TCU in 2015.

The awareness of Fair gave the Wildcats a 14-7 lead with 2:02 left in the second quarter — and the Wildcats led the game the rest of the way. TCU's talented quarterback Josh Hoover threw a pass down the line to wide receiver Ed Small — which was ruled by officials as a lateral — and the ball bounced off Small's hands in the right flat. Fair picked up the ball near the TCU sideline and raced 15 yards into the end zone.

Purnell put together arguably the best back-to-back plays by a K-State defender this season as K-State built a 21-7 lead. On first down, Purnell swept in and sacked Hoover at the TCU 15. Then Purnell dropped back into coverage, read the eyes of Hoover, and stepped in front of the pass, caught the ball, and it was clear sailing for a pix-six and a 14-point lead with 10:28 left in the third quarter.

It was K-State's first pick-six since Marques Sigle returned an interception 43 yards for a score at West Virginia last season.

It was the first time K-State had two defensive touchdowns in a game since against Baylor in 2023. K-State now has 138 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999, which leads the FBS during that span.

Game Notes

• This was the 123rd all-time meeting between K-State and Kansas, the ninth most-played rivalry in FBS history... It was also the 115th-consecutive meeting between the two schools, the third-longest uninterrupted series in the FBS... The Wildcats have now won each of the last 17 meetings and 30 of the last 35 dating back to 1991... Kansas State defeated KU in Lawrence for the ninth-consecutive time dating back to 2010.

• K-State picked up its 17th-consecutive victory over Kansas to improve the longest streak in the series by either team... Among active uninterrupted winning streaks (must have played and won every year), the Wildcats' 17-game streak over KU is the most in the FBS.

• Kansas State forced four turnovers on fumble recoveries by Ralph Ortiz and Malcolm Alcorn-Crowder, as well as interceptions by Daniel Cobbs and Gunner Maldonado... It is the fourth-straight game the Wildcats forced multiple turnovers after beginning the year with just three in their first three games.

• Jayce Brown tallied four receptions for a career-high 160 yards and a touchdown... It was the fifth 100-yard game in his career, one shy of entering the school's top-10 list... His 160 receiving yards was the most by a Wildcat in a game since Byron Pringle had 166 yards at Oklahoma State in 2017... His touchdown reception came on a 78-yarder toward the end of the third quarter, K-State's longest pass play since an 80-yarder by Deuce Vaughn against Kansas in 2022, while it was the longest touchdown reception since an 81-yard by Phillip Brooks at Iowa State in 2022.

WILDCATS DOMINATE SUNFLOWER SHOWDOWN

LAWRENCE, Kan. – Seventeen and counting! Kansas State entered the Sunflower Showdown as the underdog for the first time since this remarkable winning streak began in 2009, but the Wildcats emphatically showed that it was the same 'ol, same 'ol in a series that they have dominated for nearly two decades, racing past Kansas, 42-17, for a 17th straight win over their rival — and keeping the coveted Governor's Cup Trophy in Manhattan for another year.

On a dreary and cold Saturday in Lawrence, it was K-State — not Kansas — that repeatedly lit up the scoreboard, quickly conjuring memories of many previous victories at Memorial Stadium. As time ticked down, some folks headed toward the stadium exits, but the K-State marching band blared on, and K-State players and coaches paraded toward the visiting locker room serenaded by rain-soaked K-State fans, who remained, and who were warmed by the vision of the numerals upon the scoreboard and by the smiles upon the faces of players who labored for this win.

K-State answered its skeptics. Kansas fell to 4-4 and 2-3.

K-State with 17-straight wins over Kansas now owns the longest winning streak in an uninterrupted series in the FBS. Georgia owns a 16-game winning streak over Kentucky.

After starting the season with a 1-3 record, K-State has gone 3-1 with the lone loss a one-point defeat at Baylor on October 4. K-State thumped TCU 41-28 in its previous game on October 11.

With K-State and Kansas both coming off bye weeks, many believed this Sunflower Showdown had the makings of a nailbiter. After all, K-State entered as one of only three Power 4 teams to already have five games decided by one possession. Also, the last two K-State/Kansas battles were notably close. Two years ago, K-State beat Kansas 31-27 in Lawrence, and last season K-State beat Kansas 29-27 in Manhattan. Didn't happen this time in front of 41,525 at Memorial Stadium. K-State, which said it was ascending into a really good team, exploded.

K-State led 21-14 at halftime and finished things off by outscoring Kansas 21-3 in the final two quarters. K-State outgained Kansas 371-247 in total yards, outgained the Jayhawks in passing yards 231-137, and outgained them in rushing yards 140-110. K-State averaged 7.0 yards per play; Kansas 3.2. The Wildcats also collected four sacks on Jalon Daniels, who went 17-of-35 for 129 yards and one interception. The leader in passing efficiency in the FBS entering the game, Daniels never seemed comfortable against the Wildcats' defense, which sent four and five rushers at a time while defensive backs took care of the back end.

K-State forced four takeaways — two fumble recoveries by Ralph Ortiz and Malcolm Alcorn-Crowder, and two interceptions by Daniel Cobbs and Gunner Maldonado. K-State now has 17 takeaways this season and entered the game ranked 12th nationally in that department.

In a game that featured impressive performances, perhaps K-State sophomore wide receiver Jayce Brown shined the brightest. He had four catches for 160 yards and one touchdown for the most receiving yards by a K-State player since Byron Pringle at Oklahoma State in 2017, and Brown's 78-yard catch-and-run touchdown was the longest pass play since Will Howard's 80-yard pass to Deuce Vaughn against Kansas in 2022. The touchdown couldn't have come at a better time.

K-State grinded down the field. Johnson converted a fourth-and-1 play to get the ball to the Kansas 33. Three plays later, Johnson rolled to his right and threw across his body and found Brown in front of Mason Ellis near the goal line. DeVon Rice pounded it into the end zone for a 28-14 lead with 7:23 left in the third quarter.

Game Notes

• This was the 25th all-time meeting between K-State and Texas Tech with the Wildcats now holding a 15-10 advantage in the series... Texas Tech snapped an eight-game K-State winning streak in the series, but the Wildcats have still won 12 of the last 14 games... K-State is now 3-2 in home games this season.

• Quarterback Avery Johnson made his 23rd-career start under center, throwing for 199 yards and a touchdown on 16-of-33 aim, in addition to rushing for 88 yards and two scores... His 88 rushing yards were the third most of his career, only outdone by 110 yards last year at Arizona and 90 yards two years ago against Texas Tech... Paired with his two rushing scores at Kansas, Johnson has tallied multiple rushing touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time in his career... He now has seven career rushing touchdowns in two games against Texas Tech... His first rushing score on Saturday was a 46-yarder in the first quarter, which was the longest rush of his career... It bettered a 33-yard run he had last year against Cincinnati.

• Avery Johnson became the ninth player in school history to top the 5,000-yard passing mark, while he moved into eighth place in career passing yards with 5,182... He moved into sixth place in school history in career passing attempts, a mark that now stands at 711... He now has 421 career completions to tie for sixth in school history... Johnson now has 16 passing touchdowns this season, which is tied for third place in school history among juniors... He has now been responsible for 67 career touchdowns to tie for fourth in school history.

K-STATE FALLS TO NO. 13 TEXAS TECH, 43-20

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State gave No. 13 Texas Tech a heavyweight fight for three quarters, but the Red Raiders and one of the best defenses in the FBS delivered a second-half knockout punch, as the Wildcats suffered a 43-20 loss and saw their eight-game series winning streak over Texas Tech end at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State trailed 12-7 at halftime, but couldn't keep pace with Texas Tech, which scored on six straight possessions, forced K-State into a season-high five turnovers, and outscored the Wildcats 31-13 in the second half en route to its first win in Manhattan since 2008.

Unfortunately for K-State, the 60-minute chapter against Texas Tech played out like it had for most of the Red Raiders' opponents during one of their best seasons in decades. And yet, K-State found itself down just 29-20 when quarterback Avery Johnson hit tight end Garrett Oakley with a nine-yard touchdown pass in the back of the end zone with 12:44 left in the fourth quarter.

But Texas Tech's Romellow Height sacked Johnson and forced a fumble, and John Curry scooped up the ball and scampered 8 yards for a touchdown to make it 36-20. On the next K-State possession, Ben Roberts intercepted Johnson's pass near the K-State sideline and Texas Tech scored again when quarterback Behren Morton threw a beautiful pass to Caleb Douglas as he raced down the sideline into the end zone for a 43-20 lead with under 3 minutes to go.

Johnson completed 16-of-33 passes for 199 yards and one touchdown and two interceptions, and he added 15 carries for 88 yards and two scores on the ground. Johnson's performance included a career-long 46-yard touchdown run for the opening score of the contest, bringing the sellout crowd of 52,111 to its feet and giving the Wildcats hope that it could be their night at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Turned out, it was just the beginning of a tremendous battle for the Wildcats, who came off a dominant 42-17 win over Kansas in Lawrence and now head into a bye week.

K-State won the first quarter and showed no fear against a Texas Tech team that had outscored its previous eight opponents by a combined 119-6 in the first 15 minutes.

It took just two possessions for K-State to make its presence known. Johnson completed a short pass across the middle to Oakley that turned into a 28-yard gain. Three plays later, on third-and-1, Johnson faked to the left and ran to the right and down the sideline untouched 46 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. It was the longest rush of Johnson's career and the longest play allowed by Texas Tech this season.

Although Texas Tech entered with the No. 1 rushing defense in the FBS in allowing just 68.1 rushing yards per game, the Wildcats had 76 rushing yards with 14:13 left in the second quarter when wide receiver Jayce Brown rushed for 13 yards to put the ball near midfield.

K-State finished with 126 rushing yards against Texas Tech, which hadn't allowed an opponent to rush for more than 105 yards this season.

Game Notes

• This was the 72nd all-time meeting between K-State and Oklahoma State with the Cowboys now holding a 43-29 advantage in the series... K-State became the first road team to win in the series since Oklahoma State won in Manhattan in 2020... The last 10 meetings in Stillwater have been decided by an average of 6.4 points.

• Kansas State won in Stillwater for just the second time since 1999, which spans 10 matchups... It was the Wildcats' first win in Boone Pickens Stadium since a 45-40 upset of the 10th-ranked Cowboys in 2017... K-State is now 10-24 all-time in Stillwater.

• Kansas State forced five turnovers in the game... It was the 16th time in the Big 12 era that the Wildcats forced at least five turnovers in a game and the first time since forcing six at Kansas in 2013... Of the five turnovers, three were interceptions, which were the most by the K-State defense since tallying three picks at Texas Tech in 2023.

• The game at OSU marked the seventh-straight game the Wildcats forced multiple turnovers... It is the longest streak in the nation and the longest by the Wildcats since a nine-game streak from Oct. 2, 1999 (at Texas) through Dec. 29, 1999 (vs. Washington in Holiday Bowl)... This was the second game this season K-State forced at least four turnovers (Kansas), the first time with two such games in a season since 2022 (4 vs. Missouri/at Texas Tech).

DEFENSE FORCES FIVE TURNOVERS IN WIN AT OSU

STILLWATER, Okla. – Kansas State's defense provided the fireworks, and the Wildcats needed just a pair of touchdowns to celebrate a 14-6 win at Oklahoma State, giving the Wildcats just their third win at Boone Pickens Stadium in 27 years, and pushing them one win closer to bowl eligibility.

While Oklahoma State, 1-9 overall and 0-7 in the Big 12 Conference, outgained K-State, 5-5 and 4-3, by a total of 373 to 284 offensive yards, the Wildcats forced a season-high five takeaways to win in Stillwater for the first time since 2017.

K-State knew nothing would come easy against an Oklahoma State team led by interim head coach Doug Meacham that had shown improvement over the past six games and came off a bye week. Oklahoma State entered having won 79 of its last 80 games when holding opponents to under 20 points since 2005.

Although Oklahoma State took a 6-0 lead on a pair of 47-yard field goals by Logan Ward, the Wildcats kept the Cowboys off the scoreboard the rest of the way and didn't allow them into the end zone while wreaking havoc for quarterback Zane Flores and his teammates.

Flores completed 24-of-36 passes for 233 yards and two interceptions. He was sacked two times by Cody Stufflebean and Ryan Davis.

Avery Johnson completed 15-of-28 passes for 177 yards and one touchdown and one interception, and Joe Jackson had 14 carries for 69 yards and a touchdown for the Wildcats, who played the second half without star wide receiver Jayce Brown. Brown had three catches for 82 yards and one touchdown in the first half, but he appeared on the field for the second half in a shoulder sling.

K-State had six punts, two touchdowns, one interception and one missed field goal in the game, most notably struggling offensively during a first half that ended with a 7-6 advantage.

Oklahoma State outgained K-State, 193-133, in the first half and jumped on top with a pair of 47-yard field goals by Ward — one with 8:37 left in the first quarter, and another with 14:55 left in the second quarter — before the Wildcats finally got on the scoreboard.

On a first-and-10 play, Johnson completed a pass across the middle to Brown on a short slant, and the wide receiver turned it up field and raced into the end zone for a 34-yard touchdown with 7:07 left before halftime.

The Johnson-to-Brown connection — three completions for 82 yards — accounted for more than half of the Wildcats' offensive production in the first two quarters.

The Wildcats, who punted each of their first four possessions and had just 47 total yards of offense before their 4-play, 48-yard touchdown drive, attempted to put together a second straight scoring drive, but an 8-play, 43-yard drive ended when Luis Rodriguez missed a 38-yard field goal attempt with 15 seconds to go until the half.

For all of K-State's offensive difficulties, the Wildcats' defense was staunch in keeping the Cowboys out of the end zone while Zashon Rich and VJ Payne each intercepted passes by Flores — giving K-State at least two takeaways for a seventh straight game.

Game Notes

• This was the first all-time meeting between K-State and Utah... It was the second-to-last set of current Power 4 conference opponents to have not met on the gridiron... Oklahoma and Mississippi State is the other set, which are scheduled to play next season... K-State is now 0-6 in the state of Utah as it is 0-4 in Provo (BYU) and 0-1 in Logan (Utah State).

• Kansas State rushed for 472 yards, which was a new school record... The previous record was 439 rushing yards at Drake in 1954... It was the second most nationally this season and the most against a conference opponent (Florida State – 498 vs. Kent State)... It was also the most rushing yards by a team ever at Rice-Eccles Stadium... K-State's team rushing average of 11.2 was the highest by a Wildcat team in the Big 12 era.

• K-State's 47 points were the third-highest scored on the road against a ranked team in the Big 12 era... The most during that time frame is 55 points at West Virginia in 2012, followed by a 49-point effort at Texas Tech in 2013.

• Sophomore running back Joe Jackson rushed for a school record 293 rushing yards and three touchdowns on 24 carries... He bettered the previous record of 292 yards by Darren Sproles against Louisiana in 2004... His 293 rushing yards were also the most ever by an opponent in Rice-Eccles Stadium history and the second most among all players this season... He had an 80-yard touchdown run in the first half, which tied for the eighth-longest rush in school history and was the longest since Deuce Vaughn had an 88-yard run against Alabama in the 2022 Sugar Bowl.

K-STATE LOSES HEARTBREAKER AT NO. 12 UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah – Kansas State's first trip to Salt Lake City turned into Heartbreak City as No. 12 Utah came back again and again and delivered the final blow with a one-yard touchdown run with 56 seconds left for a 51-47 victory, dousing one of the best offensive outputs in K-State history and a historic night by sophomore running back Joe Jackson at Rice-Eccles Stadium.

Heavy-underdog K-State went toe-to-toe against Utah on its Senior Night and in the first-ever meeting between the schools put together an effort that has epitomized the season for this squad.

The Wildcats, whose 47 points were the third-highest scored on the road against a Top 25 opponent in the Big 12 era, fought to the end.

Jackson rushed for a K-State-record 293 yards on 24 carries with three touchdowns to power an offense that recorded a school-record 472 rushing yards and five rushing touchdowns, and that totaled 574 total yards of offense — the eighth-best offensive output in school history.

Jackson's touchdown runs covered 66 yards for a 21-14 lead in the midway second quarter and 80 yards to make it 31-21 just before halftime before his 24-yard run gave the Wildcats a 47-35 lead with 7:00 left in the fourth quarter.

But Avery Johnson's 2-point conversion pass following Jackson's score was intercepted by Tao Johnson, and he raced down the entire field and into the opposite end zone for two points for the Utes, making it 47-37. From there, Utah scored the game's final two scores — a 20-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Devon Dampier to wide receiver Larry Simmons with 2:47 to go before Dampier's 1-yard touchdown run effectively ended a heartbreaker for K-State.

Utah entered the game outscoring opponents by an average of 25.5 points. It ranked No. 2 in the FBS with 278.4 rushing yards, No. 6 with 41.1 points, and No. 10 with 477.8 total yards of offense. It also ranked No. 10 in allowing just 15.6 points per contest.

Utah had eight wins by at least 25 points, which were the most in the FBS and the most by a Big 12 team since Baylor in 2013. K-State brushed all that aside while executing one of the most valiant efforts in recent memory.

K-State outgained Utah, 574-551, in total offensive yards, and it outrushed the Utes, 472-292. But K-State was hindered by 10 penalties. Utah, the national leader in red-zone efficiency, scored every time it was inside the redzone. K-State went 4-for-4 inside the red zone as well.

Johnson completed 12-of-23 passes for 102 yards and one touchdown and one interception. Johnson's 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Garrett Oakley to make it 38-35 with 1:48 left in the third quarter gave Johnson 48 career touchdown passes, tying him with Will Howard for the most touchdown passes all-time at K-State.

But there was no beating the rushing output, which was better than any K-State team had ever achieved in a single game. Running back Antonio Martin Jr. had five carries for 89 yards and one touchdown, and Johnson had 12 carries for 72 yards and one touchdown. Time after time K-State had explosive runs against the Utes' defense.

Game Notes

• This was the 68th all-time meeting between K-State and Colorado with the Buffaloes now holding a 45-22-1 advantage, including a 17-15-1 mark in Manhattan... This was CU's first visit to Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2009... Coupled with last year's 31-28 win in Boulder, K-State won two-straight games over Colorado for the first time since 2006 and 2007.

• K-State finished the season with a 5-4 Big 12 record in 2025... It was the fourth-straight season the Wildcats had a winning conference record as they join Texas Tech as the only Big 12 members to have winning league marks in each of the last four seasons... It is the first time K-State had four-straight years with winning Big 12 records since 2011 through 2014.

• Running back Joe Jackson became the first Wildcat to rush for at least three touchdowns in consecutive games since quarterback Adrian Martinez had four rushing scores at Oklahoma followed by three the next week against Texas Tech in 2022... He became the first K-State running back to accomplish the feat since Alex Barnes had three at Baylor followed by four at home against Oklahoma State in 2018... In terms of rushing yards, Jackson became the first K-State player to back a 200-yard rushing effort with a 100-yard game since Barnes' games at BU and vs. OSU in 2018.

JACKSON RUSHES FOR 3 TDS IN WIN OVER CU

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State senior offensive lineman Taylor Poitier wasn't ready for his college career to end in a loss at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. Standing in front of his teammates at halftime of a 7-7 game against Colorado, Poitier offered some impassioned words inside the locker room. His teammates listened.

K-State brushed off a frustrating first two quarters and flipped a switch in a 24-14 win over Colorado, lifting the Wildcats to 6-6 overall and 5-4 in the Big 12 Conference in what ended up being the last game in the career of head coach Chris Klieman.

K-State finished with a 5-4 Big 12 record, the fourth-straight season the Wildcats had a winning conference record. K-State and Texas Tech are the only Big 12 members to have winning league marks in each of the last four seasons. It's the first time K-State had four-straight years with winning Big 12 records since 2011 through 2014.

Playing amid 32-degree temperatures and a 24-degree windchill with wind gusts ripping as hard as 40 miles-per-hour at times, K-State for the second straight week used a stellar performance from running back Joe Jackson — 26 carries for 142 yards and 3 touchdowns — and a 35-yard field goal from Luis Rodriguez to battle past Colorado and quarterback Kaidon Salter, who guided a squad that had lost four straight and hadn't won a road game all season, yet tried to play spoiler against the Wildcats.

Colorado outgained K-State, 323 to 321, but the Wildcats churned out 206 rushing yards, went 2-of-3 on fourth down, and went 4-for-4 inside the red zone.

Jackson's first touchdown of four yards gave K-State a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, his 1-yard rush made it 14-7 in the third quarter, and his 17-yard carry provided the final points of a game that came after his school-record 293-yard, 3-touchdown performance at No. 12 Utah.

K-State's offense got rolling early on a 74-yard jaunt, picking apart a Colorado defense that has struggled all season. The drive really gained tracking when Jackson rushed to his right for 27 yards to the Colorado 18 — the longest play for K-State in the first half. Then facing fourth-and-5 at the 13, Avery Johnson lofted a pass to Brayden Loftin down the left side for nine yards. Finally, Jackson went up the middle four yards for a touchdown to cap a 13-play opening drive that consumed 7:13.

K-State did turn Colorado away as Zashon Rich nearly intercepted a pass down the middle for the field on third down. On fourth down, Qua Moss blocked a 39-yard Alejandro Mata field-goal attempt. It marked the 10th time this season that K-State held the opponent off the scoreboard on its first drive.

Colorado did finally get on board with a monster 11-play, 84-yard touchdown drive that took exactly 2:00. On third-and-17, Salter completed a short pass to Omarion Miller, who turned up field and tip-toed down the sideline for a 38-yard catch-and-run to the K-State 1-yard line with 37 seconds left in the second quarter.

After K-State forced a three-and-out to start the third quarter, the K-State offense went to work and manufactured one of its best drives of the game. Johnson found wide receiver Jaron Tibbs on a crossing route for a 21-yard gain to the Colorado 8-yard line. Jackson went around the left side and plowed through nickelback Preston Hodge and fell backward at the goal line before his next carry on an off-tackle run went into the end zone to take a 14-7 lead.

K-State finished off a 14-play, 30-yard drive with a Luis Rodriguez 35-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead with 10:43 left in the game. But Colorado wasn't finished as the Buffaloes got Welch loose up the middle for a 1-yard score to cut K-State's lead to 17-14 with 7:03 left, capping a 9-play, 75-yard drive.

On the very next drive, Jackson went up the middle again, spinning around two defenders and using his right hand to keep him off the turf before leaping forward from the 3-yard line and into the end zone for a 24-14 lead with 2:37 left.

TERENCE NEWMAN

Cornerback • 1999-2002 • Class of 2026

One of the most electrifying and dynamic players in the early 2000s, Terence Newman will enter the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame as part of the Induction Class of 2026 in December.

Regarded as one of the most dynamic football players in school history, Newman electrified fans playing for Snyder from 1999-2002 and followed his Wildcat days with a 15-plus-year career in the NFL.

A two-time All-Big 12 selection, Newman put together an unforgettable senior season in 2002, earning Consensus All-American honors as a cornerback and returner while also earning All-Big 12 First Team and Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors. He also won the 2002 Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the nation's top defensive back.

Newman still ranks highly in the K-State record book in many career categories, including a tie fourth in pass breakups (31) and passes defended (41), a tie for eighth in interceptions (10), and third-place rankings in punt return average (15.4) and punt return touchdowns (3). In terms of season categories, Newman is tied for third in passes defended in 2002 (19), tied for fifth in pass breakups in 2001 and 2002 (14) and tied for 10th in passes defended in 2001 (17).

Newman, a K-State Ring of Honor and Athletics Hall of Fame member, was also a two-time All-American while competing for K-State Track & Field, winning two Big 12 Championships with a school record 6.62 in the Indoor 60-meters and 10.20 in the Outdoor 100-meters, two marks that still stand.

In 2003, Newman became the second-highest draft pick in school history as the No. 5 overall selection in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys and earned two Pro Bowl selections during his career.

MICHAEL BISHOP

Quarterback • 1997-98 • Class of 2023

The namesake behind the "Wildcat" formation, quarterback Michael Bishop brought a new dynamic to college football as one of the game's first true dual-threat quarterbacks. Bishop, who led the Wildcats to a 22-3 record during his two-year career, left K-State holding 26 game, season or career records, including career rushing yards by a quarterback (1,314), career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (23), lowest interception percentage in a season (1.36% in 1998), single-game passing yards (441 vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 1998), passing yards in a season (2,844 in 1998), passing touchdowns in a season (23 in 1998), career passing touchdowns (36), longest pass (97 yards vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 1998) and total offensive yards in a season (3,592 yards in 1998).

Quarterbacking the Wildcats to a victory in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl over Syracuse, Bishop led K-State to an 11-0 start to the 1998 campaign as the Wildcats earned their first No. 1 ranking in school history as they sat atop the coaches' poll toward the end of the season. K-State generated 479.4 yards of total offense that season thanks to Bishop, who accounted for 37 touchdowns. After totaling over 1,500 passing yards and 500 rushing yards as a junior in 1997, Bishop improved those figures during his final campaign when he threw for 2,844 yards and 23 touchdowns while rushing for 748 yards and another 14 scores.

A product of Willis, Texas, who came to K-State from Blinn Junior College, Bishop won the Davey O'Brien Award in 1998 in addition to being a runner up for the Heisman Trophy and finalist for the Maxwell and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm awards. Bishop's outstanding 1998 season came on the heels of a 1997 campaign in which he was named the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year and MVP of the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, a 35-18 victory over Syracuse.

Following his time at K-State, Bishop was drafted in 1999 by the New England Patriots. He later went on to play 10 seasons in the Canadian Football League, helping lead the Toronto Argonauts to a victory in the 2004 Grey Cup.

Bishop was selected to the K-State Football Ring of Honor in 2015, while a year later he was inducted into the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame. He was also inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2012.

DARREN SPROLES

Running Back • 2001-04 • Class of 2021

One of the most electric and prolific runners in college football history who left Kansas State as the school's all-time leading rusher and holding more than 20 school and conference records, Darren Sproles was enshired in the College Football Hall of Fame in 2021

A First Team All-American in 2003, Sproles finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting after leading the nation with 1,986 rushing yards. A three-time All-Big 12 performer, he earned first team honors in 2003 and 2004 and second team accolades in 2002. In 2003, Sproles led K-State to the Big 12 title – its first conference title since 1934 – after posting 345 all-purpose yards, catching a 60-yard touchdown pass and rushing for a Big 12 Championship Game record 235 yards in an upset win over No. 1 Oklahoma. One of three finalists for the 2003 AP Player of the Year, he earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in 2002, and he led the FBS in all-purpose yards (2,067) in 2004. The 2003 Doak Walker Award finalist led the Wildcats to three postseason berths, including a win in the 2002 Holiday Bowl, and two top-15 finishes in 2002 (No. 7) and 2003 (No. 14).

Sproles finished his career 11th all-time in rushing and sixth all-time in all-purpose yards in NCAA history. A 2015 inductee into the K-State Football Ring of Honor, he left Manhattan with 28 single-game, single-season or career records, 21 of which are still standing. The senior team captain boasts program career records for rushing yards (4,979), all-purpose yards (6,812), rushing attempts (815), rushing yards per carry (6.11), 100-yard rushing games (24) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (10). Sproles still holds three of the top five single-season rushing performances in school history, including the top mark of 1,986 in 2003. His 2,735 all-purpose yards in 2003 are a Big 12 and K-State single-season record, and he also holds conference records for career 100-yard games and career all-purpose yards.

A fourth-round pick by the San Diego Chargers in the 2005 NFL Draft, Sproles played 15 seasons in the league with the Chargers (2005-10), New Orleans Saints (2011-13) and Philadelphia Eagles (2014-19). The three-time Pro Bowl selection was a member of the Eagles team that won Super Bowl LII. Currently ranked sixth in NFL history with 19,696 all-purpose yards, Sproles set the single-season league record with 2,696 in 2011.

BILL SNYDER

Head Coach • 1989-2005, 2009-2018 • Class of 2015

Bill Snyder, the architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football," became just the fourth person in the history of college football to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as an active coach as the legendary K-State coach was part of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame Induction Class of 2015.

A five-time national coach of the year honoree and seven-time conference coach of the year recipient, Snyder compiled an amazing 215-117-1 record in his 27 years at the helm of the Wildcat program, leaving as the 20th winningest coach in FBS history. Called the "coach of the century" by hall of fame coach Barry Switzer, Snyder's accomplishments at K-State were nearly unthinkable considering what he inherited during his first tour of duty beginning in 1989. The Wildcat program was in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired and had been to just one bowl game in its first 93 seasons. During a the span of 11-straight bowl seasons (1993-2003), Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories – a staggering 10 wins per season – and making K-State the nation's second winningest program over that period. His first tenure included a Big 12 Championship in 2003 in a 35-7 win over No. 1 Oklahoma, while his 1998 team held a No. 1 ranking.

The 14th fastest coach in college football history to win 100 games at the time of his induction, Snyder was a three-time Big Eight and four-time Big 12 Coach of the Year, and he took home almost every major college football coaching award after the 1998 season, including those presented by Walter Camp and the Associated Press.

Following a three-year hiatus, Snyder returned to the sidelines in 2009, and it was more of the same as his teams accumulated a 79-49 record and eight bowl berths in his final 10 seasons.

Included in the second tenure was a pair of 10-win campaigns in 2011 (10-3) and 2012 (11-2). The 2012 Wildcats captured the program's second Big 12 Championship and held another No. 1 national ranking. After turning 75 years old on Oct. 7, 2014 – which qualified him to be included on the 2015 ballot – Snyder's team promptly traveled to No. 11 Oklahoma and pulled out a 31-30 victory, a key component of the Wildcats' nine-win season in 2014.

MARK SIMONEAU

Linebacker • 1996-99 • Class of 2012

Former Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau became just the second Wildcat football player to be elected to the Hall of Fame as he was enshrined as a member of the Class of 2012.

A two-time All-American, Simoneau stands as possibly the greatest defender in Kansas State history. A three-time team captain, Simoneau holds a school record with 251 career unassisted tackles, ranks third in school history with 400 total tackles, 52 tackles for loss and eight forced fumbles. The 1999 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year also notched 15.5 sacks and seven fumble recoveries.

A 1999 Butkus Award runner-up and a three-time First Team All-Big 12 selection, he led Kansas State to one of the greatest stretches in school history as the Wildcats earned a 42-7 record during his playing days, which included a 28-4 mark in Big 12 play. He became the school's seventh Consensus All-American when he earned the nod in 1999.

Drafted in the third round of the 2000 NFL Draft, Simoneau played 11 seasons for Atlanta, Philadelphia, New Orleans and Kansas City. He recorded 370 total tackles in 124 career NFL games.

GARY SPANI

Linebacker • 1974-77 • Class of 2002

Gary Spani became the first K-State player to be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. A member of the K-State Football Ring of Honor, Spani was Kansas State's first-ever consensus All-America in 1977, and also was a three-time All-Big-8 Conference selection. Additionally, Spani was Heisman Trophy Linebacker Award finalist and named defensive MVP in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Japan Bowl.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles in three-straight seasons and was twice named the team's most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the K-State career record book as the program's all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110). He averaged 17 tackles per game his senior year, and recorded at least 20 tackles in four games.

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons. He is the all-time leading tackler in Chiefs history with 999 career stops thanks to posting five 100-tackle campaigns. He was inducted into the Chiefs Ring of Honor in 2003.

CHARLES BACHMAN

Head Coach • 1920-27 • Class of 1978

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1978. Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995), Bachman's eight-year record at K-State was 33-23-9.

LYNN "PAPPY" WALDORF

Head Coach • 1934 • Class of 1966

Lynn O. "Pappy" Waldorf coached K-State to its first conference championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966. A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56).

BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM

▲ BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM

Renamed in honor of legendary head football coach Bill Snyder by a proclamation of the Kansas Board of Regents on Nov. 16, 2005, Bill Snyder Family Stadium will host its 59th season of Wildcat football in 2026.

Originally named KSU Stadium, the facility was built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions. The stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000, and an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side.

Following the 1998 season, the addition of a deck and sky suites on the east side of the stadium increased capacity to more than 50,000. On Nov. 11, 2000, 53,811 fans witnessed Kansas State's 29-28 win over Nebraska. It remains the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Kansas.

A complete teardown and rebuild of the Vanier Family Football Complex, the installation of new video and message boards, in addition to an enhanced sound system and the implementation of public WiFi are some of the most recent additions to Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2015.

Prior to the 2025 season, Kansas State installed Hellas' Matrix Helix turf system inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium in addition to the indoor and outdoor practice fields.

The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 58-year history of the stadium:

1970: A statewide spring fund-raising drive raised $250,000 for the installation of Astroturf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It housed all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result was one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure carried the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kansas.

1991: New Astroturf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including suites, and a $2.2 million indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center became a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron, new scoreboards and marquis message board.

1999: Following the 1998 season, the facility underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000 with temporary seating.

2002: A new FieldTurf playing surface was installed. The $850,000 project was completed in late May of 2002 and featured an innovative sand and rubber infill mixture and was the newest technology in competitive field products.

2003-07: The Vanier Football Complex received a complete makeover that included a new training facility, weight room, equipment room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, locker room and permanent seating in the north end zone.

2006: New video and message boards were installed at the north and south ends of Bill Snyder Family Stadium at a cost of $1.7 million. The south end of the stadium received a fully integrated ProStar VideoPlus display system that measures 23' X 61'.

2007: The seating in the lower bowl of Bill Snyder Family Stadium was completely upgraded, including new chairbacks below the press box on the west side of the stadium and aluminum benches throughout the balance of the lower bowl. A new stadium sound system was also installed.

2011: Phase I of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master renovation plan began. A new AstroTurf Gameday Grass 3D infill playing surface was installed as well as construction of additional restroom facilities on the east side view level of the stadium.

2012: Construction began on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the West Stadium Center. The new $75 million WSC included new amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms, press level, suites, club and loge seating and ticket offices replaced the facilities on the west side. Additionally, a new Team Fan Store and Hall of Honor were included on the main Concourse Level.

2013: Construction on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – West Stadium Center completed in time for the start of the season.

2014: Construction began on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new Vanier Football Complex – following the completion of the season.

2015: Construction on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new $65 million Vanier Football Complex – completed in time for the season.

2016: Phase IIIB of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan, which features a new video board, showcase stage for the marching band and visiting locker room, was completed in time for the season.

2018: K-State replaced its playing surface as it installed AstroTurf's newest product – RootZone Trionic 3D – becoming the first Division I football program in the country to install the product. Additionally, the east side club was renovated.

2020: Construction on the South End Zone project began. In time for the 2020 season were two new video boards in the southeast and southwest corner to mirror those in the north end.

2021: The Shamrock Zone in the south end zone was completed and transformed the south concourse by providing a completely covered walkway area with consessions for general seating in the south end zone. Above, suites, loge boxes and a club area services both football and basketball.

2023: The new Shamrock Practice Facility was completed. Located on the east side of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the facility helps the program save time from meetings straight to the practice field, while side-by-side full-size indoor and outdoor fields provide ample space for full team and positional work.

2025: Hellas' Matrix Helix playing surface was installed prior to the season inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium and on the indoor and outdoor practice fields.

2026: A new LED lighting system was installed prior to the season. The new lighting system has various color options, including purple, to enhance the fan experience atmosphere inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Note: Prior to the opening of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus.

K-STATE SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones (1888) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"K-S-U, we'll carry the banner high, K-S-U long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory in the combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of K-State athletics. In the fall of 1968, the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming basketball game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to K-State has become a second fight song.

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT...

It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State's public-address announcer began what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, he would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, the P.A. announcer did this ritual alone. However, at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase and began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, K-State's P.A. announcer no longer even needs to finish the phrase as the Wildcat fans finish it for him.

RING OF HONOR

K-State started a new tradition in 2002, as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from Kansas State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at K-State.

The inaugural induction class of 2002 included six members, while four members were added in both 2008 and 2015, and six more were added in 2022, bringing the total number to 20 players. The names of the players are displayed on the east side upper deck and club level of the West Statdium Center in addition to on a unique ring display in the West Stadium Center concourse.

The entire list of players in the Ring of Honor can be found on pages 208-209.

HARLEY DAY

A creation of former athletic director Max Urick, Harley Day, is one of the most popular days of the year for Wildcat fans. Led by Willie Wildcat, Harley Day participants, with their engines blaring, take the short ride around the playing surface of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, where they are greeted by a boisterous crowd.

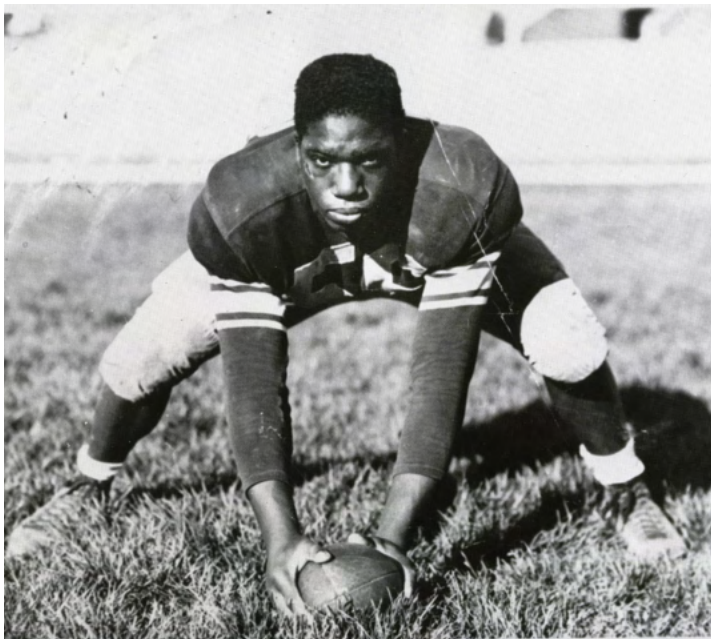
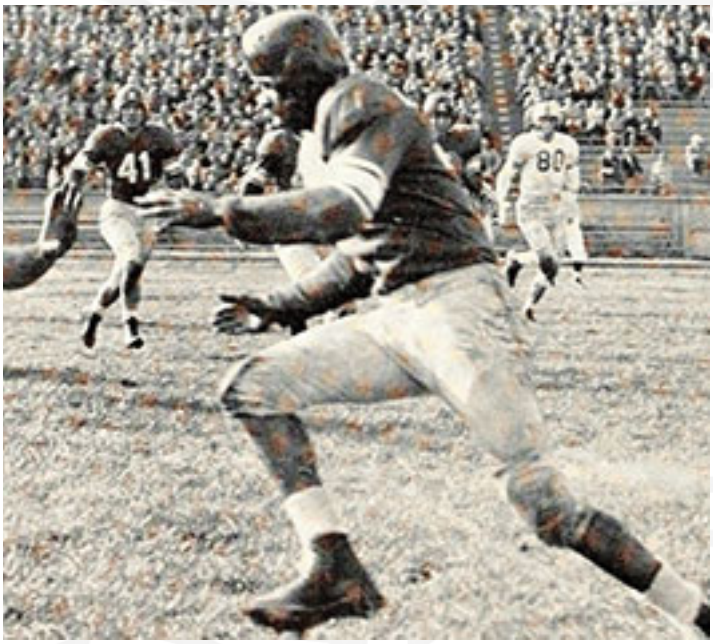
RAY ROMERO (1947-49)

One of the first Hispanics to play in the NFL, Romero played for the Wildcats from 1947 to 1949 and was a member of the 1951 Philadelphia Eagles team.



HAROLD ROBINSON (1949-50)

Robinson was the first black scholarship athlete in the Big 7 Conference. A 2004 inductee to the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame, Robinson earned All-Big 7 First Team honors in 1950.



HOYT GIVENS (1949-50)

Givens was the first black non-scholarship football player in the Big 6 Conference. He joined Harold Robinson as the first two black athletes to compete in an event at the University of Oklahoma in Norman.

VERYL SWITZER (1951-53)

Switzer was the first black scholarship student-athlete to graduate from K-State. He held the school's career punt return record until 1995 and scored the second longest punt return in school history. Switzer was selected fourth overall by the Green Bay Packers in the 1954 NFL Draft.

OVERVIEW

K-State was established in 1863 as the nation's first operational land-grant university. As such, the university's mission has always been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond. K-State is governed by the Kansas Board of Regents.

Through its next-generation land-grant university strategic plan, K-State is building on its foundation to once again lead the way as the next-generation land-grant university — operating as a future-focused, inclusive and connected community that inspires discovery, creates prosperity, impacts society and transforms lives in Kansas and beyond.

About Our Campuses

The Manhattan campus encompasses more than 2,320 acres, including agricultural and research facilities. The campus is known for its historic limestone buildings. This classic college town, located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas, is home to more than 56,000 residents and growing steadily, attracting local and national businesses.

One hour west, in Salina, is the Kansas State University Salina Aerospace and Technology Campus, which is known for its educational focus on experiential learning, professional pilot program and its renowned unmanned aircraft systems programs.

K-State Olathe, in the Kansas City metro area, offers academic programs, professional education and workforce development opportunities aligned with regional industry needs. The campus provides undergraduate and graduate degrees, certificates and continuing education programs in fields such as animal health, biosciences, public health, leadership and advanced manufacturing.

K-State Online, home to 100-plus online and distance programs, is your connection to education that puts you on a path to amplify your potential. Professional development workshops and enrichment programs are also offered through this campus.

K-State Extension expands the university's reach through centers across the state, providing research-based expertise and resources to help communities solve local challenges.

University President

Virginia Tech, 1988

k-state.edu/president

Dr. Richard H. Linton is the 15th president of Kansas State University, serving in the role since February 2022. He earned his bachelor's degree in biology (1988), master's degree in food science (1991) and Ph.D. in food science (1994), all from Virginia Tech University. Linton participated in the Food Systems Leadership Institute from 2009 to 2011 and completed the Harvard Graduate School's Institutional Educational Management Program in 2018.

At Kansas State University, Linton has led the creation and implementation of Next-Gen K-State, a strategic plan that will guide the university through 2030 and beyond. This initiative has resulted in significant advancements in student recruitment and success, a remarkable increase in research funding, enhanced statewide engagement and economic development, improvements in research and teaching facilities, record-breaking fundraising and competitive achievements in athletics. This new university strategy has increased undergraduate and graduate student numbers to over 20,000, enhanced competitive research by more than 20%, brought in nearly $700 million through philanthropy, and led to over $150 million in state and federal support. Key universitywide initiatives created by the plan include a statewide economic growth plan called K-State 105, and interdisciplinary efforts, including in biomanufacturing and biosciences, digital agriculture and advanced analytics, and water.

Before joining Kansas State University, Linton served as dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at North Carolina State University (2012-2022), department chair of food science and technology at The Ohio State University (2011-2012) and a faculty member in the Department of Food Science at Purdue University (1994-2011). At Purdue, Linton was the founding director of the Center for Food Safety Engineering and the associate director of agricultural research programs.

As dean at NC State, Linton led a college of over 300 faculty, 3,000 undergraduate students and 1,000 graduate students. Under his direction, the college developed a strategic plan focused on enhancing people, programs and partnerships. Collaboration with industry and government were critical to the mission of the college, and Linton's dedication was demonstrated through the NC Plant Sciences Initiative and the NC Food Processing and Manufacturing Initiative, both aimed at job creation and addressing global agricultural challenges. Under his leadership, competitive research for the college reached $100 million annually, and the college raised $482 million during the NC State Capital Campaign.

Linton has held several key leadership roles, including membership on the Food and Drug Administration's Science Advisory Board and serving as chair for the Binational (Israel/U.S.) Agricultural Research and Development Fund, a position he was appointed to by the U.S. secretary of agriculture in 2018. He also previously chaired the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities Healthy Food Systems, Healthy People Steering Committee and the NC Governor's Task Force on Food Manufacturing.

President Linton and his wife, Sally, an ADHD/executive function life coach, have two children: a daughter, Lily, and a son, Chris.

The Gene Taylor era could go down as one of the most successful periods in K-State Athletics history as Taylor's program has taken the college athletics world by storm. Team championships, individual national titles, postseason runs, record crowds, continued academic success and new facility enhancements have all been the cornerstone of recent Wildcat success.

Heading into 2026-27, K-State will be led by two new head coaches in Collin Klein (football) and Casey Alexander (men's basketball), while second-year track and field coach Travis Geopert is coming off a season that saw three Wildcats earn individual national championships and three teams finish in the Top 10 including a program-best fourth place national finish from the men's indoor program. Additionally, women's volleyball advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament under Jason Mansfield.

Previously, Chris Klieman's football team won nine games and were Rate Bowl champions in 2025, the women's basketball team garnered another Top 10 ranking and trip to the Sweet 16 under Jeff Mittie, while Pete Hughes and the baseball squad advanced to its second straight NCAA Regional. On the golf course, Stew Burke's women's squad advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history and were led by All-American Carla Bernat, who also won the prestigious Augusta National Women's Amateur title, and Big 12 individual champion Sophie Bert. Two new coaches began leading their respective programs in 2024-25 as Geopfert took over the track and field/cross country program and Colleen Corbin in women's soccer.

The 2023-24 campaign was highlighted by a Super Regional berth for baseball, just the second time in program history that the Cats have won a regional and advanced to the supers, a Pop-Tarts Bowl win for the football team and a women's basketball season that saw the Wildcats rise to as high as No. 3 in the national rankings before hosting the 2024 NCAA First and Second Rounds in Manhattan. Mansfield's first season leading the volleyball program included record crowds in the new Morgan Family Arena and numerous wins over top-10 opponents.

That all came on the heels of Klieman's football team winning the 2022 Big 12 Championship and playing in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and the men's basketball squad making a remarkable run to the Elite Eight following a preseason poll that picked the Wildcats to finish last in the league.

A former member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and current chair of the FBS Athletics Directors Association and member of the College Football Oversight Committee, Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for seven bowls and win the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments, the baseball team win the Fayetteville Regional and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and his staff have fundraised and implemented a department-wide facility master plan that benefits all Wildcat teams including the newly completed Indoor Track and Field Complex, the Morgan Family Arena for volleyball, Morris Family Olympic Training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility for football.

Taylor, who was named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium in 2020 and the 2022-23 Cushman & Wakefield FBS AD of the Year, has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to the NIL/revenue sharing collegiate model, have been well documented.

K-State Nation continues to support the athletics program in unprecedented fashion as overall pledges and cash gifts to the department during the 2025 fiscal year totaled $40 million, of which $25.7 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program. Included in the $25.7 million annual giving was $878,000 raised during the Powercat Auction.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in year four led the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship. When Klieman retired in 2025, Taylor brought in Heisman Trophy finalist and Wildcat legend Klein. Jordan Smith took over the tennis program, Geopfert's early success has the track and field program among the best in the country, and Hughes took the Wildcat baseball program to just its second Super Regional in school history. Mansfield had a banner first year on the volleyball court as record crowds saw his squad knock off three Top 10 opponents at home. Burke, in his first season in 2023-24, catapulted the women's golf program up the national ranks and narrowly missed on qualifying as a team for the NCAA Tournament in year one before advancing to the NCAA Championship round in year two and making it back to the postseason in year three. Taylor's most recent hire was Alexander, who averaged more than 20 wins a year during a long stint at Belmont.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida. He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell. He served 13 years as Athletics Director at North Dakota State before being named Deputy AD at Iowa in 2014.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED

A six-time winner of the Super 11 Award – including the 2019-2023 seasons – the K-State Athletics Communications Office has picked up several honors over the past 18-plus years. Honored by the Football Writers Association of America as one of the top 11 sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision in 2015, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023, the K-State Athletics Communications Office has garnered 75 top-five national publication honors in all sports over the last 20 years from College Sports Communicators (formerly College Sports Information Directors of America). Among the honors include its 2015 football media guide, the 2017 and 2019 bowl guides and 2022 game notes judged as "Best in the Nation," while the 2016 football game notes, 2019 football yearbook and 2022 bowl guide were rated "Second in the Nation."

MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to K-State! Thank you for your interest in Kansas State football. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2026 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats. Please feel free to contact any member of our staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the season.

COVERING K-STATE

Weekly News Conference

Head coach Collin Klein hosts a weekly news conference each Monday afternoon at the Vanier Family Football Complex. Exact time for the weekly press conferenes will be announced at a later date. A transcript of Klein's press conference in addition to video and audio will be available at www.k-statesports.com later in the day each Monday.

News Conference Video

Broadcast-quality video files for TV newscasts of each weekly news conference are available for download on Monday afternoons. Contact the K-State Athletics Communications staff for access instructions.

Other Availability

Assistant Coaches: Coordinators will only be available on K-State's bye week with a day and time to be announced.

Players: All player interviews MUST be arranged through the K-State Athletics Communications Office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media only at Monday news conferences. To request players for the weekly news conference, media should contact Associate Athletics Director for Communications Ryan Lackey via email each Sunday by 3 p.m.

GAMEDAY INFO

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering K-State football on either a season or individual-game basis must to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications credential website at www.kstatesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies at the bottom of this page. Prior approval of credentials does not guarantee a credential in 2026.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes will not be mailed. Passes may be picked up at a location to be determined by the K-State Athletics Communications Office. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions.

Photographers

Only a limited amount of accredited photographers/videographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. All photographers must obtain and wear a K-State Athletics vest (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 20-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 16 years old are not permitted on the sideline.

Photographers are asked to stay behind the white dotted line on the field with priority given to individuals operating cameras and parabolic microphones for the network television broadcasting the game.

The designated photographer work space is on the field level of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, just inside the northeast (visiting team) tunnel. Tables, chairs, power strips and wireless internet are provided. The area may be used on a first-come, first-served basis.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at (785) 532-2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

K-State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with legitimate news outlets. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game. Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials or interviews.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID email addresses are listed on pages 10-11.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly Release

The K-State Athletics Communications Office provides its weekly football release via email. Updated notes and statstics are first available at Collin Klein's weekly press conference on Mondays, while they will be available online on Monday afternoons at www.kstatesports.com. To receive K-State's weekly notes package via email, please contact Ryan Lackey.

Weekday Working Space

K-State provides work space for media outlets in the Athletics Communications Office following each Monday news conference. The office is located on the sixth level of the West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and is fully equipped with wireless internet access.

Gamedays on the Dev Nelson Press Level

The Dev Nelson Press Level includes a working area for print media, home and visiting radio networks, home and visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth, TV booth, radio spots, coaches' video and a photo deck.

Press Box Services

A limited number of pregame notes and flipcards in hard copy form are available for media in the press box prior to each game. Otherwise, media is asked to view those materials via the K-State Football Media Center (www.kstatesports.com/fbmedia). A limited number of hard copies of quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams will be available in the press box as well.

Live running statistics are available on TVs throughout the press box and online at kstate.statbroadcast.com during the game. Final stats, notes and quotes will be made available to the media and are posted on the official K-State Athletics website shortly after the conclusion of each contest.

Internet Access

The Dev Nelson Press Level is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office for access and usage instructions. Wireless internet credentials are for media only and are not to be distributed to the general public.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Ryan Lackey at the start of the fourth quarter. Coach Klein and requested players will be available in the Steel & Pipe Team Theater on the third floor of the Vanier Family Football Complex following a brief cooling off period.

Postgame news conferences for visiting teams will take place in the designated visiting team interview area, which is accessible through the visiting team tunnel in the northeast corner of the stadium.

Postgame Highlights

Broadcast-quality files of highlights for use in newscasts following all home games are available. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office or K-StateHD.TV staff for access instructions.

Media Meals

A pregame meal is served in the Dev Nelson Press Level beginning two hours prior to each game. The meal is reserved for working members of the media with proper credentials. Milk and ice cream are also provided for all games courtesy of Hiland Dairy of Manhattan.

CREDENTIAL POLICY AND GUIDELINES

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines.

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers and websites regularly covering Kansas State University, the current game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Officially recognized Kansas State University student publications or electronic media outlets.
4. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Local radio/television stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show will receive top consideration.
5. Non-daily newspapers reporting on the game.
6. Websites/blogs will only be afforded credentialing opportunities if affiliated with legitimate news outlets*.
7. Freelance photographers will not be afforded credentialing opportunities unless hired by legitimate news outlets* or the opponent media relations staff. Personal NIL photographers are not permitted.

 The definition of "legitimate news outlets" is at the sole discretion of K-State Athletics*

These guidelines were developed prior to July 1, 2026 and are subject to change due to any alterations in city, county, University or Big 12 Conference policy.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

1. With the exception of media covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
2. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
3. Kansas State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not recognized as a legitimate media organization.
4. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
5. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
6. Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conferences from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.
7. Each outlet requesting credentials will be permitted a MAXIMUM of TWO "on-field" passes which can be designated for still photography or video use. These two passes MUST be utilized in a working fashion and each user must check out a PHOTO VEST from the press level (which must be worn on the field at all times).

WYATT THOMPSON

Voice of the Wildcats

A seven-time Kansas Sportscaster of the Year – including five of the last eight years – 2011 recipient of the Hod Hummiston Award and 2022 inductee into the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the K-State Sports Network and returns for his 25th season behind the mic as "Voice of the Wildcats."

K-State's Senior Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the K-State coaches radio shows, and he is heavily involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams' football and men's basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition to his duties at CSU, he was also a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver, the "Countdown to Kickoff" host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio and hosted the "Zone Sports Insiders" show on 760 The Zone in Denver.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989. He and his wife Karen reside in Manhattan.

STAN WEBER

Analyst

Providing the color analysis is former Kansas State quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 40th year in the booth and having called 480-consecutive football games entering 2026, Weber passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as ESPN+ broadcasts.

A native of Goddard, Kansas, he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-American honors.

Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accountancy from Kansas State and currently serves as President & CEO of Tower Properties in addition to his broadcast duties. Weber was also a 2009 inductee into the K-State Accounting Hall of Fame, a 2014 inductee into the Kansas Shrine Bowl Hall of Fame, and a 2019 inductee into the Goddard Public Schools Hall of Fame.

Weber and his wife, Nancy (Freshnock), a former K-State cheerleader, have four children – Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry. Stanton played five years on the K-State football team and served as the 2015 special teams captain, and he is currently the Special Teams Coordinator for the Wildcats. Landry also played five seasons as a wide receiver for the Wildcats, and McKenzi played volleyball at K-State. The Webers reside in Lenexa, Kansas.

MATT WALTERS

Sideline Reporter, Pregame and Postgame Host

Matt Walters is in his 22nd year as the Wildcats' sideline reporter and host of the network's pre- and postgame show. The 2013 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year is also a 32-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts, while he also previously hosted the popular 'Powercat Gameday' football pregame show for 20 years on KMAN and KMKF. Walters also serves as an analyst for a portion of the men's basketball broadcasts on the K-State Sports Network as well as play-by-play duties for women's basketball.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kansas, Walters worked nearly 10 years as Vice President/Commercial Product Specialist at Manhattan's Commerce Bank, while he worked in a variety of roles at Manhattan Broadcasting the previous 20 years. He is currently a sales associate for Schurle Signs, which is based in Riley and Lawrence.

In addition to being named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2013, Walters also received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year in 2005. He and his wife Janelle – and their fur-children Murphy, Maggie Jo and Charlie – live near St. George.

K-STATE SPORTS NETWORK

Wildcat football is on the air! The 2026 football season marks the 22nd year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and LEARFIELD.

K-State Coaches Radio Show

Affiliates on the K-State Sports Network carry the K-State Coaches Radio Show throughout the season. The show originates from Powercat Sports Grill in Manhattan on Wednesdays from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. during the season.
